La Cavale

Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 6

Overview

In the heart of Eyragues, La Cavale unfolds in a palette of soft neutrals, painted wood beams and airy light - an effortlessly stylish village home where bohemian charm meets modern comfort. Thoughtfully renovated, this maison de village captures the essence of Provençal living while offering the convenience and finesse of contemporary design.

Step inside to find a relaxed lounge space with wood-burning stove flowing through to a sleek, well-equipped kitchen. Whether you're preparing fresh finds from the Friday morning market or unwinding with a glass of local rosé, the ambiance is both inviting and easy-going. Upstairs, three beautifully appointed bedrooms await: a double with an en suite shower room and two further bedrooms sharing a bathroom. The house also benefits from air-conditioning for restful nights, an office area in case you need to work, a TV lounge and billiard table.

Outside, the terrace invites al-fresco living, from long lunches on the patio to laid-back evenings under the stars. A petite plunge pool adds a welcome dose of refreshment, while a couple of sun loungers set the scene for lazy afternoons.

Less than 100m from the village centre, La Cavale enjoys the rare privilege of village life almost on your doorstep. Stroll to cafés and local shops, soak up the lively atmosphere of the weekly market, or hop in the car to discover the best of the region.

Saint-Rémy-de-Provence is just 6.5km away, with Avignon, Les Baux-de-Provence and Arles all within easy reach. From the lavender fields of the Luberon to the UNESCO listed Pont du Gard, this central location offers the ideal springboard for unforgettable days out.

Whether seeking slow Provençal rhythms or days packed with discovery, La Cavale promises a stay where ease, style and authenticity come together in perfect harmony.

Location & Local Information

Only 15km south of Avignon, Eyragues is a traditional Provençal village that enchants with its rustic charm and authentic atmosphere. With its leafy plane trees, bustling village square and friendly locals, Eyragues offers a truly immersive slice of Provençal life. Stroll through its lanes, stop by the Friday morning market for local produce and handmade goods or simply relax with a pastis in one of the cafés lining the square - it's the perfect place to slow down and soak in the rhythm of rural France.

Just a few minutes south lies the celebrated town of Saint-Rémy-de-Provence (6.5km), known for its elegant boulevards, gourmet restaurants and art galleries tucked within honey-coloured stone buildings. Don't miss the fantastic weekly market taking place on a Wednesday morning. History lovers can explore the Roman ruins of Glanum (8km) and the monastery of Saint-Paul-de-Mausole (8km), where Van Gogh painted some of his most iconic works. With its blend of culture, gastronomy and heritage, Saint-Rémy is a must-visit while staying in Eyragues.

The region is also the gateway to Les Alpilles, a dramatic chain of limestone hills dotted with captivating villages and scenic trails. Discover Les Baux-de-Provence (15km), a medieval hilltop village perched above olive groves, where cobbled streets lead to panoramic views from the castle ruins. Nearby, the elegant village of Eygalières (17.5km) offers a quintessential charm, with its stone houses, Friday morning market, high-end restaurants and lovely views from the top of the village.

For a dose of city life, a day trip to Avignon (15km) is an easy and rewarding adventure. Once the seat of papal power, this fortified city on the Rhône boasts the majestic Palais des Papes, the iconic Pont d'Avignon, and a vibrant cultural scene. Explore its winding streets, sample local wines or visit during the world-renowned Avignon Festival for a taste of Provence at its most theatrical.

With its central location, Eyragues is a great base for exploring the many treasures of the region whether you seek cultural riches, natural beauty or the simple pleasures of village life under the Provençal sun.
