Villa Hesperis

Region: Rhodes Sleeps: 6

Overview

Step through the private gates of Villa Hesperis and you're met with quiet calm, where manicured gardens and the scent of pine trees set the tone for days of easy living. The cool stone path leads you past lush greenery toward a three-storey home, bright and inviting. Inside, soft neutrals and modern furnishings create a serene atmosphere, with three spacious, air-conditioned bedrooms and three sleek bathrooms offering a sense of effortless comfort.

On the ground floor, the open-plan living area blends style with function. A polished kitchen sits beside a sociable dining table, while just beyond, the lounge invites you to sink into the sofa for a film or a few rounds on the PS4. Upstairs, a tucked-away attic gym offers a treadmill, weights, and cycling machine with sweeping mountain views from the window.

Outdoors, the villa opens fully to nature. A sparkling pool glistens in the sunshine, surrounded by loungers, shady seating areas and a dining pergola for lingering barbecues. Between matches of table tennis and foosball, enjoy the stillness of the forest that wraps around the villa. Just a short drive to Ialysos beach and close to Rhodes Town and Filerimos, Villa Hesperis offers space to breathe and room to reconnect.

Location & Local Information

Tucked in a peaceful part of Ialysos, Villa Hesperis places you within easy reach of both island buzz and forested tranquillity. A short drive brings you to Ialysos beach, known for its long stretch of pebbled shoreline and unforgettable sunsets. The town centre offers everything you need, from cafés and supermarkets to car rentals and local tavernas.

History lovers can head fifteen minutes east to explore Rhodes Old Town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site with cobbled streets, Byzantine churches and medieval walls. To the west, Filerimos Hill offers walking trails and sweeping island views. A bit further afield, the Valley of the Butterflies enchants in summer, while Lindos, with its hilltop Acropolis and sandy bays, makes a rewarding day trip. Whether you're planning quiet beach days or cultural discovery, Villa Hesperis is wonderfully placed to enjoy the best of Rhodes.
