Lindos Villas

Region: Rhodes Sleeps: 8

Overview

With the Aegean glimmering below and sunlight spilling across pale timber floors, Lindos Villas offer a crisp, calming space to unwind on the southeastern coast of Rhodes. Inside, the open-plan layout flows from a sleek, fully equipped kitchen through to a modern living area with built-in shelving, pale-toned furniture and floor-to-ceiling glass that draws the sea view in. Each of the three main bedrooms is ensuite and immaculately styled, while an additional studio sits tucked beneath the terrace, complete with its own entrance, bathroom and kitchenette.

Step outside and you'll find yourself beneath a wooden pergola, where loungers line the private pool and a long dining table looks out across Lindos Bay. Whether it's a lazy breakfast by the sea or a warm evening gathered around the barbecue, the space is perfectly designed for outdoor living. This is a home that blends modern ease with Mediterranean charm, made for slow days and salt-kissed air.

Location & Local Information

Tucked into the hills above Lindos Bay, the villa sits just a short distance from one of Rhodes' most iconic villages. Lindos is known for its whitewashed lanes, rooftop tavernas, and the ancient acropolis perched dramatically above the sea. The beach is easily accessible, offering crystal-clear waters and sandy stretches perfect for swimming or paddleboarding.

Nearby, you'll find bakeries, grocery stores and family-run restaurants serving fresh seafood and traditional meze. For those keen to explore, the region is rich in history, from medieval castles and Byzantine churches to archaeological wonders dating back to antiquity. It's a destination where culture and coastal relaxation go hand in hand.
