

Villa Girifalco

Region: Tuscany Sleeps: 8

Overview

Villa Girifalco is a beautifully restored 4-bedroom, 4-bathroom farmhouse located just outside the enchanting town of Cortona in the heart of Tuscany. Surrounded by rolling hills, olive groves, and panoramic views, the villa offers an idyllic retreat that balances privacy, comfort, and easy access to cultural gems.

This charming Tuscan home accommodates up to eight guests in style and comfort. Its interiors are a harmonious blend of rustic elegance and modern convenience, featuring vaulted ceilings, terracotta floors, and tastefully chosen antique furnishings. The ground floor includes a fully equipped kitchen, a cosy living area with a fireplace, and a formal dining room - ideal for enjoying leisurely meals made from local produce.

All four bedrooms are en-suite featuring king-size beds. The layout ensures plenty of privacy for groups of friends or families travelling together with one of the bedrooms located in the annex.

Outside, Villa Girifalco impresses with expansive landscaped gardens, a private swimming pool, and several shaded seating areas perfect for relaxing with a book or enjoying aperitifs as the sun sets. The outdoor dining area, complete with a barbecue and sweeping views of the countryside, provides an unforgettable al fresco experience.

Despite its tranquil setting, the villa is conveniently located just a short drive from Cortona's historic centre, where you can explore cobbled streets, vibrant cafés, artisan boutiques, and fascinating museums. The villa also makes an excellent base for day trips to Tuscany's cultural and culinary hotspots, including Siena, Florence, Montepulciano, and the Chianti wine region.

Whether you're planning a family gathering, a romantic escape, or a holiday with friends, Villa Girifalco offers a truly memorable experience of Tuscan life at its most authentic and luxurious.

Location & Local Information

Perched on a quiet hillside just outside the historic town of Cortona, Villa Girifalco enjoys a privileged location in one of Tuscany's most scenic and culturally rich areas. Cortona, just a short drive away, is a charming medieval town known for its cobbled streets, Etruscan heritage, and warm Tuscan hospitality. Here, you can wander through artisan shops, enjoy espresso in sun-drenched piazzas, and explore historical landmarks such as the MAEC museum and the Church of Santa Margherita.

The surrounding countryside offers a wealth of outdoor activities. Take leisurely walks or invigorating hikes through rolling hills and olive groves, or rent e-bikes to explore the area's picturesque country roads and vineyard trails. Wine enthusiasts will love visiting local wineries for tastings, particularly in nearby Montepulciano or the world-famous Chianti region.

For a day on the water, head to Lake Trasimeno, just 30 minutes away, where you can swim, sail, or enjoy a peaceful lakeside lunch. The villa also serves as a perfect base for day trips to iconic Tuscan cities such as Siena, Florence, and Arezzo, each offering world-class art, architecture, and dining experiences.

What we love

- Enjoy breathtaking panoramic views of the Val di Chiana from the peaceful, elevated position just minutes from historic Cortona.
- Beautifully restored farmhouse with traditional features, including exposed beams, terracotta floors, and stylish, comfortable interiors.
- Enjoy spacious garden, private pool, covered dining terrace, and scenic walks right from your doorstep.

What you should know...

- The property is spread across two floors with internal stairs, which may not be ideal for guests with mobility issues. Similarly the garden is set on different levels which require special attention.
- Please note that the staircase is open, and children should be supervised at all times.
- There are no parasols available in the pool area.
- While Cortona is close by, a car is essential for accessing shops, restaurants, and other local attractions.
