Overview

Behind its terracotta walls, Dar Anouar opens into a peaceful, sunlit courtyard where the scent of jasmine drifts through the air and Moroccan craftsmanship shines in every detail. The villa blends contemporary elegance with traditional artistry, featuring intricate tilework, graceful arches, and thoughtfully designed spaces. The spacious lounge and dining area invite long, leisurely gatherings, while a cosy library offers the perfect corner for quiet reflection. With six serene bedrooms, including a charming children's room, each decorated in warm tones and soft textiles, the home exudes comfort and calm.

Outdoors, life unfolds at an unhurried pace. A solar-heated pool glimmers at the heart of the garden, surrounded by plush loungers and shaded seating. The broad terrace provides space for morning yoga or sunset cocktails, framed by the soft hues of the Moroccan sky. Just a short drive from the Medina of Essaouira, Dar Anouar is both a tranquil countryside escape and a gateway to the city's vibrant coastal culture, a retreat where relaxation and authenticity meet in perfect harmony.

Location & Local Information

Dar Anouar sits in Ghazoua, an area known for its tranquillity yet only 10 minutes from Essaouira's vibrant port city and UNESCO-listed Medina. Here, whitewashed lanes lead to spice-scented souks, artisanal workshops, and lively cafés serving fresh seafood. The region is beloved by kite surfers for its Atlantic breezes, while golden beaches offer quieter stretches for walking or picnicking.

Closer to home, Ghazoua has a more rural rhythm, with local markets, olive groves and traditional argan oil cooperatives to visit. Essaouira's rich history, shaped by Portuguese, French, and Berber influences, reveals itself in its architecture and music, while annual festivals bring colour and sound to its streets. Dar Anouar's location makes it easy to dip in and out of the energy of the city, returning each evening to the calm of the countryside.
