Location & Local Information

Perched in a residential setting on the edge of the charming Provençal village of Murs, Villa Lumiere Luberon offers a stylish contemporary home in the Luberon, around one hour by car from the city of Avignon.

Just a short stroll brings you into the village, where you'll find a traditional épicerie for local treats (near the edge of the village), as well as a hotel-restaurant serving good quality regional cuisine inside or on its pretty terrace (do reserve a table in advance).

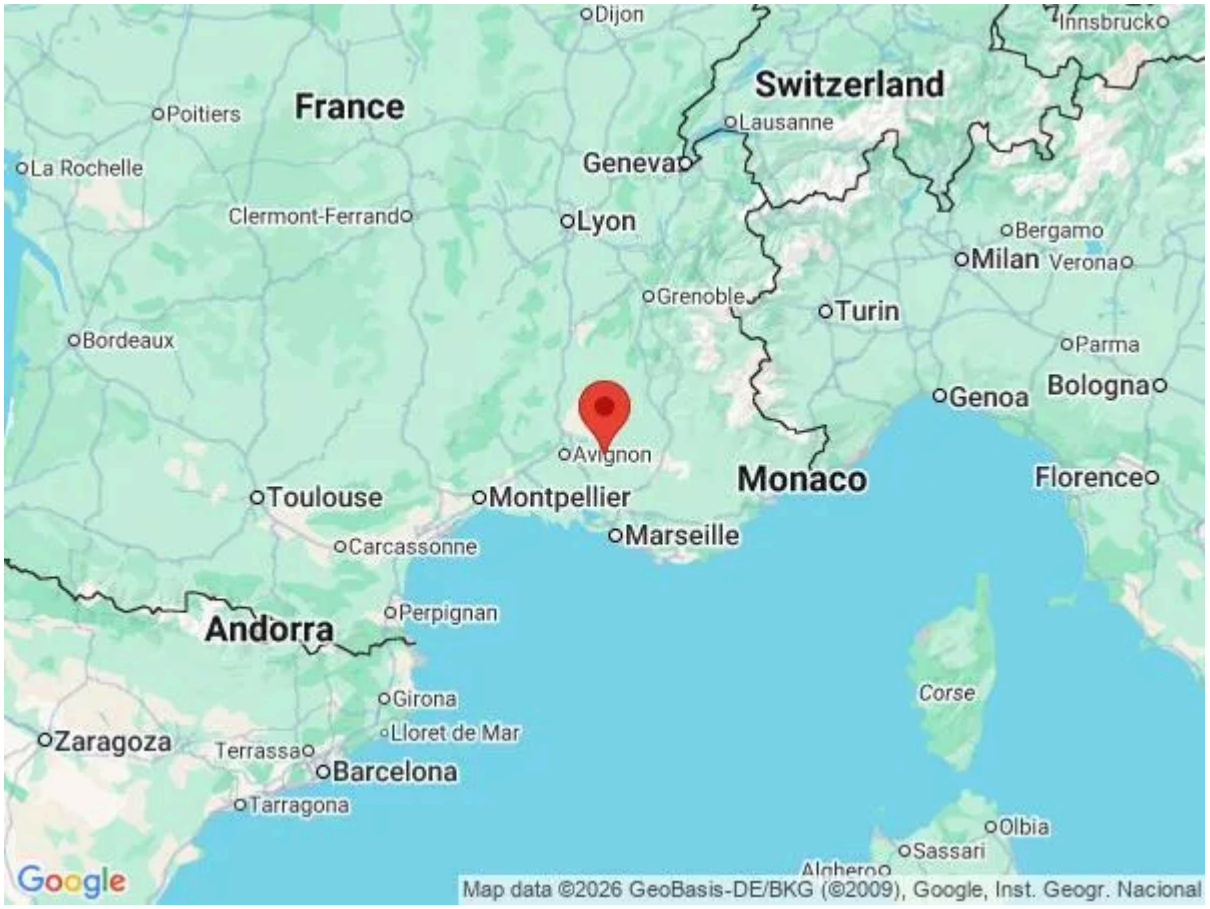

Only a ten-minute drive away lies Gordes (8km), one of France's most celebrated hilltop villages, renowned for its honey-coloured stone houses cascading down the hillside. Don't miss its Tuesday morning market where you can stock up on regional delights, artisan crafts and lavender-based products. The village is equally rich in cultural heritage, long attracting artists and creatives inspired by its light and scenery. Galleries and exhibitions celebrate this artistic spirit, while landmarks such as the 16th-century Château de Gordes stand as proud reminders of its historic and cultural legacy.

Within a short drive, you can also discover a collection of other remarkable villages – Saint-Saturnin-lès-Apt (14km) with its medieval charm and cherry orchards, Goult (13km) with its laid-back authenticity, the artistic enclave of Ménerbes (20km) and the ochre-hued beauty of Roussillon (10km), one of France's 'Plus Beaux Villages'. Each promises winding streets, sun-dappled squares and unforgettable Provençal character.

For a more vibrant atmosphere, the nearby town of Apt (18km) is just 20 minutes away and famed for its bustling Saturday morning market. Here, you can stock up on local cheeses, olives, honey and more fragrant lavender, or simply wander among the stalls soaking up the lively Provençal spirit. Apt also provides excellent shops, cafés and restaurants, making it a perfect place to blend everyday convenience with authentic regional charm.

Day trips from Villa Lumiere Luberon open up even more delights. The antique markets and canals of L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue (28km) invite you to browse treasures in a riverside setting, while Fontaine-de-Vaucluse (27km) enchants with its dramatic spring, riverbanks, canoeing opportunities and hikes.

For a cultural highlight, the historic city of Avignon (48km), with its majestic Palais des Papes and lively squares, offers a captivating glimpse into Provence's rich heritage, within an hour's drive.
