Overview

Casa das Palmeiras is a refined seafront villa in Porto's exclusive Foz district, where the Atlantic greets you at the doorstep and the city centre is just a short riverside tram ride away. The interiors are modern yet warm, with oak floors, soft lighting and artful design details that bring a contemporary edge to a classic townhouse feel. The villa offers four serene bedrooms, each thoughtfully designed with climate control, hotel-quality bedding and private or shared ensuites for ultimate comfort.

Step into the ground floor's open-plan layout where the kitchen, dining area and living space flow together, perfect for gathering with family or friends. Floor-to-ceiling windows open to sea breezes, while evenings can be spent playing board games, sharing a bottle from the wine bar, or unwinding in the cosy lounge. Upstairs, suites frame panoramic views of the Douro and the Atlantic, while a rooftop terrace provides the perfect backdrop for sunset cocktails.

The outside is just as inviting, with leafy gardens opposite and the golden sands of Foz moments away. Peaceful yet connected, Casa das Palmeiras offers an authentic slice of Porto life with all the comforts of home.

Location & Local Information

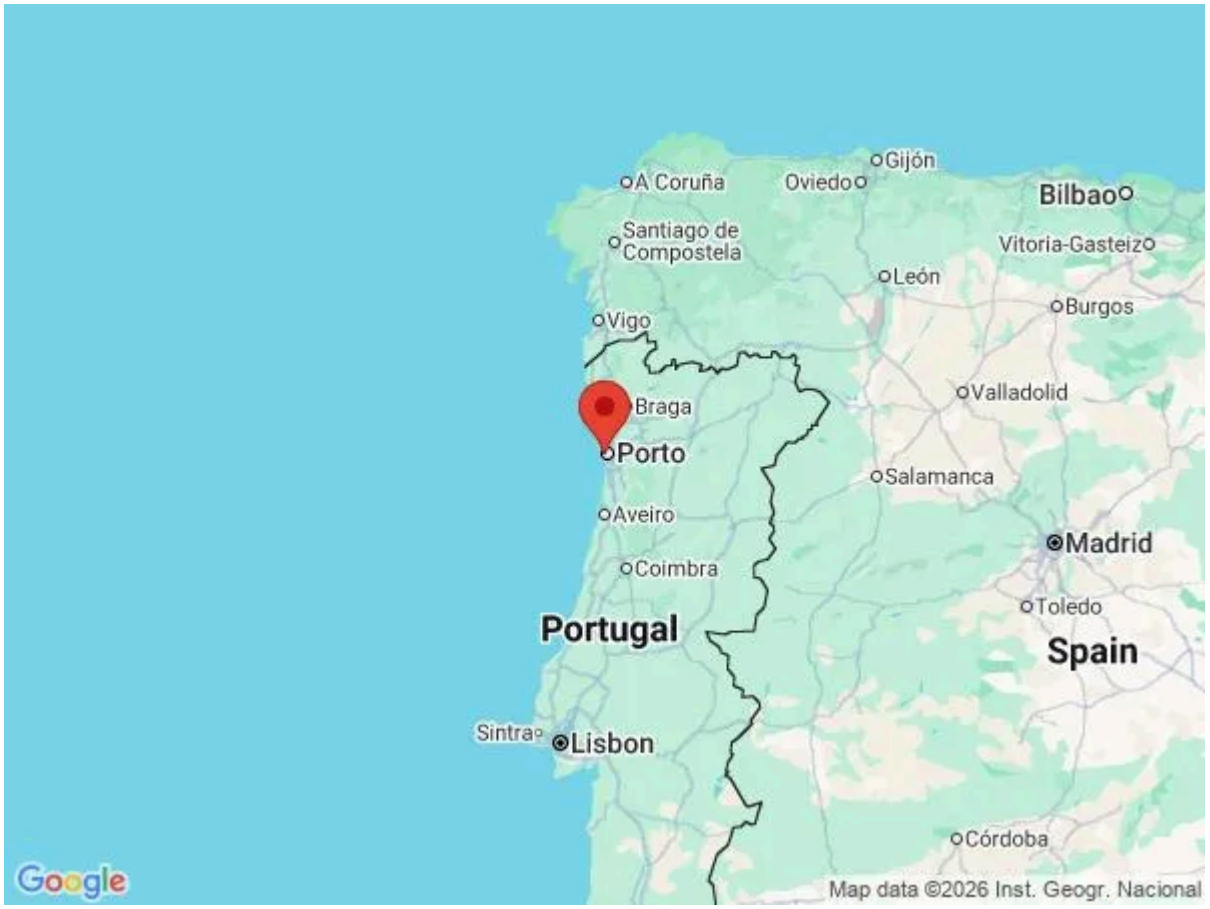

Nestled in the leafy avenues of Foz Velha, Casa das Palmeiras enjoys one of Porto's most sought-after addresses. The villa sits opposite the Jardim do Passeio Alegre, a historic riverside garden with shaded paths, ornamental fountains and even a family-friendly mini-golf course. Just steps away, the Douro River meets the Atlantic, with a promenade lined with cafés, beach bars and elegant seafood restaurants.

The neighbourhood blends residential calm with high-end dining and local charm. Around the corner, Casa de Pasto da Palmeira serves sharing plates paired with excellent wines, while traditional groceries offer fresh produce for home-cooked meals. For a taste of Porto's heritage, the vintage tram stops right outside, tracing a scenic route along the riverbanks to the historic centre in around ten minutes. Here, narrow streets, tiled façades and lively markets await.

Quiet yet connected, Foz offers the best of both worlds: the soothing rhythm of the sea alongside easy access to Porto's vibrant heart.
