

Dimora Persico

Region: Italian Lakes Sleeps: 8

Overview

Dimora Persico is a beautiful hidden gem tucked within an ancient Italian hamlet, offering a serene and stylish retreat for those seeking complete relaxation. With its blend of historic character and modern comfort, this villa is ideal for a family holiday.

Inside, the property feels both expansive and welcoming. Four spacious bedrooms and four country-style bathrooms ensure comfort for up to eight guests. Huge arched windows bathe the interiors in natural light, highlighting the villa's rich character and timeless charm. A mezzanine lounge sets the scene for slow mornings or long evenings with family and friends, while the billiards table and antique fireplace add warmth and character.

Outside, the villa truly shines. Guests can cool off in the long swimming pool that sits beside the elegant lemon terrace, or enjoy an al fresco meal in the open garden cantina, a wonderfully atmospheric setting for dining and celebrations. With views stretching over the mountains and Lake Varese, Dimora Persico is the perfect balance of beauty, and authentic Italian living.

What we love

- Swimming in the long, elegant pool framed by lemon trees and mountain views.
- Spending time in the sun-filled mezzanine lounge with its high ceilings and arched windows.
- Dining al fresco in the cantina garden surrounded by lush greenery.
- Using the villa as a base for exploring Milan, Lake Como, and the culture of Varese.

What you should know...

- The villa can host private events for up to 60 people, making it ideal for weddings or retreats.
- The swimming pool is 20 x 3 metres and 80 cm deep, perfect for cooling off but not designed for diving.
- Dimora Persico is located in a small hamlet close to a church, so guests may occasionally hear bells.
