Overview

Tucked away in the rolling hills of Lazio, Casa Papavero offers a wonderful retreat surrounded by sweeping greenery and the gentle charm of the countryside. This intimate chalet welcomes two guests into its light-filled interior, where rustic touches meet modern comforts. A cosy living area with a double sofa bed blends seamlessly with a well-equipped kitchenette, while sliding doors open directly onto the garden, inviting the outside in. With thoughtful details like air conditioning, Wi-Fi, and a stylish bathroom, the home is designed to make your stay effortlessly comfortable.

Outside, the villa's garden is a peaceful haven, complete with a private saltwater pool, sun loungers, and a shaded terrace perfect for al-fresco dining. From here, guests can bask in the serene atmosphere, enjoy lazy afternoons by the pool, or savour a glass of local wine under starry skies. Casa Papavero lies within easy reach of Lazio's highlights, from volcanic lakes like Lago di Vico and Lago di Bracciano to the historic town of Sutri, and even Rome itself, just an hour's drive away.

Location & Local Information

Located in the Lazio countryside, Casa Papavero sits just outside the town of Sutri, offering plenty of character from bustling piazzas to hidden historic corners waiting to be discovered. Sutri and Caprarola are nearby towns perfect for everyday essentials or leisurely evening strolls.

The medieval town of Ronciglione is also a short drive away, where cobbled lanes, cosy trattorias and family-run cafés bring authentic Italian charm to life.

When it comes to sightseeing, you're perfectly placed between nature and culture. Lago di Vico lies just a few minutes' drive away, a volcanic lake surrounded by lush forests and walking trails, while the larger Lago di Bracciano offers opportunities for sailing, swimming, and lakeside dining. Whether you're seeking outdoor adventure, cultural discovery, or lazy lakeside afternoons, the location of Casa Papavero lets you experience the best of central Italy at your own pace.
