Location & Local Information

Maison des Salins enjoys a privileged location at the end of a quiet impasse, just five minutes by car from the lively heart of Saint-Tropez. Guests are within easy reach of Plage des Salins, a beach with crystal waters and a popular beach restaurant - only a short drive, bike ride, or leisurely walk away. A little further, the beaches of Ramatuelle offer golden sands, chic beach clubs, and relaxed cafés.

In Saint-Tropez itself, the picturesque port is lined with pavement cafés, perfect for soaking up the atmosphere while watching yachts and people pass by. The twice-weekly traditional market fills the town with colour and fragrance, showcasing fresh produce, Provençal delicacies, and artisanal souvenirs.

For day trips, the French Riviera offers glamorous highlights such as Cannes, Nice, and Monaco. Alternatively, the inland villages and landscapes provide a more tranquil experience of Provence, with cobbled streets, vineyards, and lavender fields to explore. For a true natural spectacle, the Gorges du Verdon, often called Europe's Grand Canyon, offers breathtaking scenery and opportunities for hiking, kayaking, or simply enjoying panoramic views. This combination of coastal charm, cultural heritage, and natural beauty makes Maison des Salins an ideal holiday base.
