Le Chanlie

Region: Dordogne Sleeps: 6

Overview

Set in northern Dordogne, Le Chanlie is a beautifully restored farmhouse where tradition meets stylish rural living. Its stone walls, original wooden beams and tasteful décor create a warm atmosphere, while expansive lawns and uninterrupted views invite a slower pace of life. The gravelled courtyard and flowering borders hint at the elegance within, where every detail has been carefully curated for comfort and charm.

Inside, the farmhouse reveals generous spaces filled with character and light. A farmhouse-style kitchen with exposed stone, flagstone flooring and a large wooden table forms the heart of the home, opening onto the terrace and garden. Two living areas provide plenty of room to unwind, with UK channels, Wi-Fi and a DVD library offering cosy entertainment after sundown. Upstairs, three gorgeous bedrooms await, including two rather romantic doubles with baths in the room, a pretty twin bedroom and a family shower room.

Outside, the garden enjoy expansive countryside views and the swimming pool is delightful with its decked terrace and loungers. Whether you're starting your day with croissants on the courtyard from the local bakery or dining al-fresco under the stars, every moment at Le Chanlie invites you to reconnect, recharge and relish the good life.

The surrounding area offers a wealth of experiences. Within a few minutes' drive, Verteillac offers cafés, restaurants and essentials, while nearby Ribérac's bustling Friday market is the place to sample fresh produce and mingle with locals.

From charming villages to world-famous wine towns, the wider region promises unforgettable adventures. Take a day to explore Périgueux's medieval streets, paddle down the river in Brantôme or discover riverside beaches, châteaux and vineyard tours across the Dordogne and Charente.

For guests seeking an authentic yet stylish retreat in the French countryside, Le Chanlie offers a setting where simple pleasures and elegant living come together with effortless ease.

Location & Local Information

Just a 10-minute drive from the bustling market town of Ribérac, Le Chanlie enjoys a picturesque setting with easy access to the best of the Dordogne and Charente regions.

Daily essentials are close at hand in nearby Verteillac (5.5km), home to a boulangerie, butcher, small grocery store and a small selection of cafés and restaurants. For morning pastries even closer to home, a local bakery just 2km away has you covered.

Ribérac (10km) is a joy to explore, particularly on Fridays when its celebrated market transforms the town into a hive of activity. One of the largest in the region, it brims with fresh local produce, cheeses, crafts, and clothing. Sports lovers can also make use of the town's public tennis courts, which offer great value weekly passes and extended hours. For a family-friendly outing, Le Grand Étang de la Jemaye (25km) boasts a sandy lakeside beach, summer lifeguards, canoe hire, cafés and a play area.

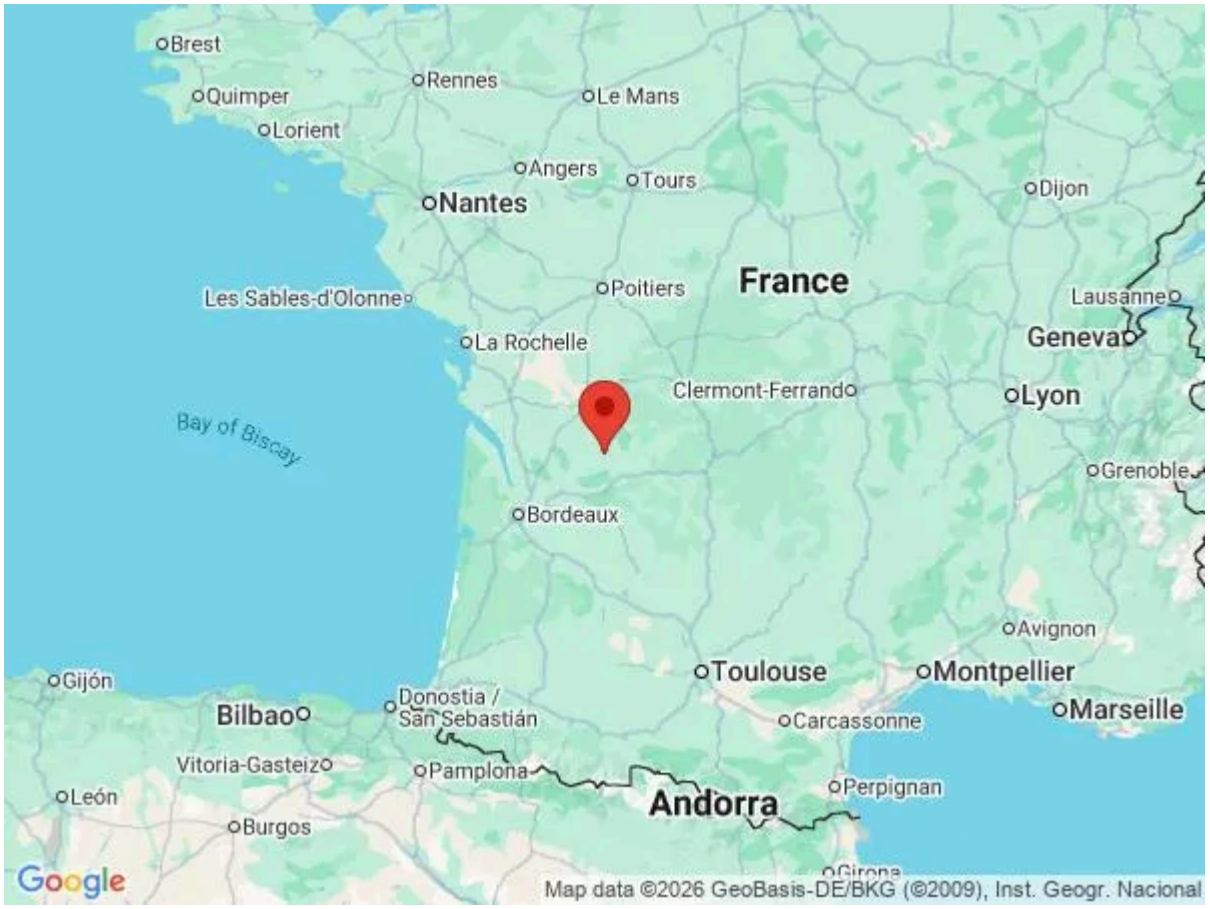

For picturesque river escapes, follow the Dronne to Aubeterre-sur-Dronne (23km) or Saint-Aulaye (28km), where riverside beaches and charming village scenes await. Aubeterre, classified among Les Plus Beaux Villages de France, captivates with its luminous stone buildings, monolithic church, galleries and lively Sunday market. Château admirers will enjoy a trip to nearby Chalais, or to the abbey town of Brantôme en Périgord (32km), with canoeing also available near the grand Château de Bourdeilles (22km).

If you're keen to venture further, a rich tapestry of historic towns lies within reach. Discover Roman heritage and rich gastronomy in Périgueux (40km), wine and architecture in Bergerac (60km) and Saint-Émilion (78km), or head northwest to Cognac (55km) for distillery tours and scenic Charente boat rides. Angoulême (52km), with its hilltop old town and vibrant arts scene, offers yet another rewarding day out.

From countryside moments to cultural exploration, Le Chanlie's location invites you to enjoy it all.

What we love

- A beautifully restored farmhouse blending characterful charm with stylish, countryside living
- Relax in the gorgeous garden with a private pool, decked terrace, and sweeping rural views
- It's a joy to cook in the farmhouse-style kitchen with pretty French windows opening out to the terrace
- We love the two double bedrooms with romantic in-room bathtubs and exposed beams
- Just a short drive to charming Verteillac and Ribérac's vibrant Friday market
- Explore nearby rivers, châteaux and the medieval lanes of Brantôme en Périgord for authentic Dordogne adventures

What you should know...

- The two gorgeous double bedrooms have open-plan baths in the bedroom. There's also a separate family shower room guests can use.
- If travelling with young children, just be mindful that the swimming pool terrace is raised above the ground and that the stone staircase is partially open-sided (as you can see in the photos).
