For days out with the family, the nearby lake in Lougratte is a wonderful spot for swimming, picnics under the trees, or enjoying the small sandy beach, pedalos, and canoes. Children can also enjoy donkey rides in the local village or try horse riding at a nearby school, while tennis courts and golf courses provide activities for all ages. Wine-tasting is another highlight of the region, offering a chance to sample the finest local vintages.

The area is rich in history and culture, with medieval Issigeac and the bastide towns of Eymet, Monflanquin, Miramont-en-Guyenne, Villeréal, and Lauzun all within easy reach, each boasting weekly markets and excellent restaurants.
