Maison Tigre

Region: Languedoc Sleeps: 8

Overview

This former Maison de Maître stands proudly in a characterful Languedoc village, its grand façade hinting at the elegance within. Maison Tigre has been meticulously restored to marry classic French architecture with contemporary design. Inside, light pours through tall windows onto exquisitely tiled floors, while original features have been sensitively preserved to retain the home's incredible charm.

Across three levels, the house is both generous and inviting. On the first floor, three delightful bedrooms combine simplicity with comfort, each space bright and classically styled. The master suite occupies the entire second floor, offering a private haven with its own living area and a gorgeous bathroom complete with a freestanding tub and walk-in Italian shower - it feels more like a boutique hotel retreat.

Downstairs, everyday moments take on a leisurely rhythm. A stunning kitchen and dining room set the stage for long meals, while the stylish living area opens seamlessly to the garden through ceiling-height glass doors. Outside, the Languedoc lifestyle unfolds around a private, heated 12-metre pool framed by cypresses and a poolside terrace. A striking summer kitchen rests beneath wooden beams, perfectly shaded for relaxed outdoor dining and lounging, with a barbecue, bar, fridge and ample space to unwind.

With traditional village life on your doorstep, just a short stroll brings you to a bustling café bar, bakery and butchers. Also within walking distance, Le Canal du Midi invites cycling or waterside lunches, while sandy stretches of the Mediterranean coast lie only 40 minutes away by car. Spend the day exploring Capestang's restaurants and markets, wander through Narbonne's medieval quarter, or plan a day trip to the romantic cityscape of Carcassonne.

Whether sharing sunny afternoons with family or enjoying the slower rhythm of village life, Maison Tigre promises a refined and relaxed escape in the heart of southern France.

Location & Local Information

In the village of Argeliers, Maison Tigre places you in the midst of authentic southern French village life and just a short stroll from the Canal du Midi. The village is located between Béziers (28km) and Carcassonne (50km), both with international airports.

Close to rolling vineyards and within easy reach of both the Mediterranean coast and historic inland towns, this charming village offers the perfect balance of rural beauty and cultural richness. With its characterful streets, stone houses and warm community feel, Argeliers is a quintessential Languedoc village where daily life unfolds at a gentle pace. The house is set on a road near the edge of the village. From your doorstep, a short walk brings you to the café-bar, restaurant, two bakeries, a butcher, grocery store and the local tennis courts.

On the edge of the village lies the Canal du Midi, a UNESCO-listed waterway winding through shaded plane trees and tranquil countryside. Whether walking, cycling or dining beside its slow-moving waters, it's a wonderful and serene experience.

Also by the Canal du Midi, nearby Capestang (10km) offers a lovely canal-side setting with lively restaurants, shops and useful supermarket. The traditional market takes place on a Wednesday and Sunday morning. In the other direction, the Tuesday morning market in Olonzac (16km) is also not to be missed.

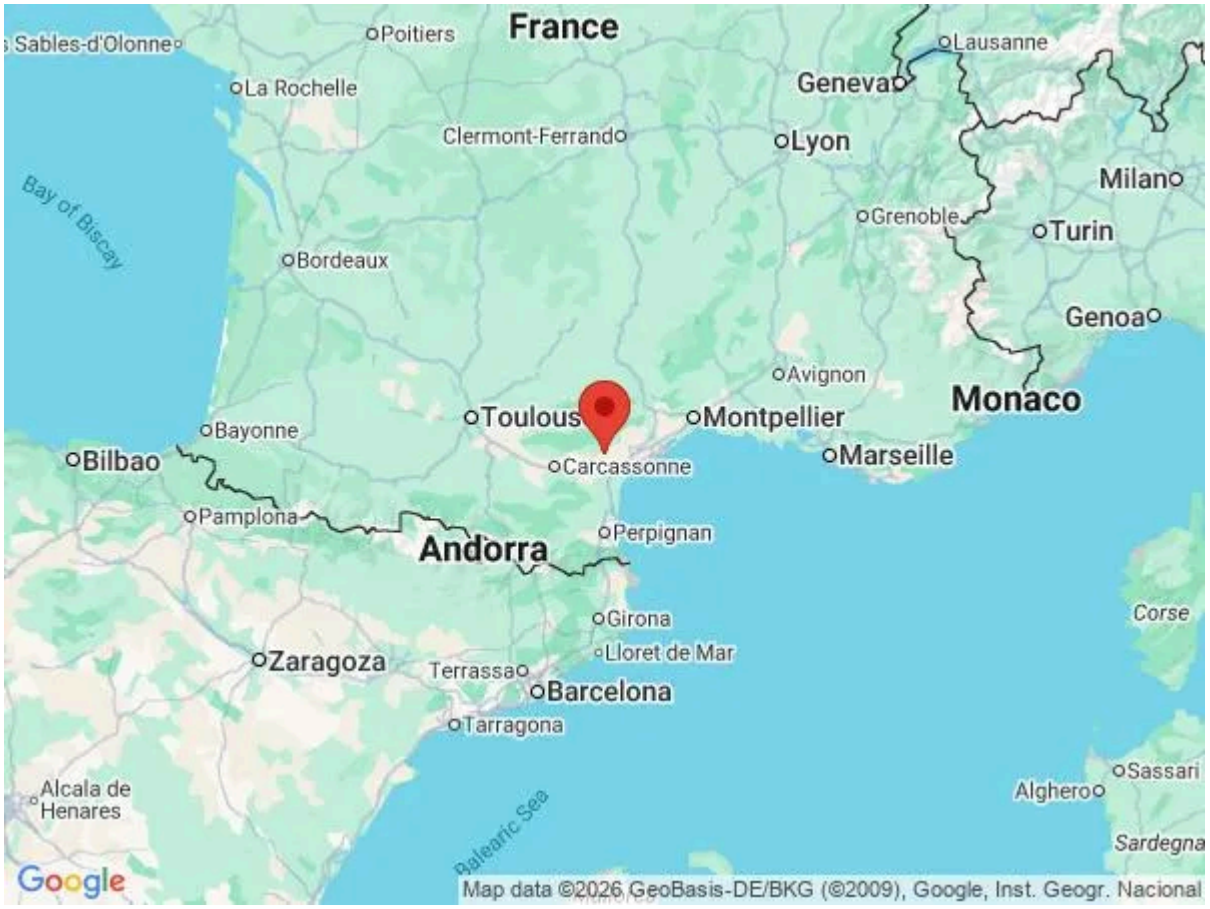

For day trips, you're spoilt for choice. Narbonne (21km) boasts a magnificent Gothic cathedral, fascinating Roman ruins and a picturesque old quarter lined with café terraces. Further afield, Carcassonne (50km) enchants with its fairytale medieval citadel - its soaring towers and summer festivals making it one of the most atmospheric day trips in the region.

Back at home, wine lovers will find themselves at the centre of one of France's most dynamic winemaking regions, with countless vineyards and tasting rooms within a short drive. For something truly memorable, a visit to the hilltop village of Minerve (20km), perched above dramatic gorges, promises stunning views and a taste of the region's Cathar past. There are several wine bars and tasting opportunities in around Minerve, home to the famous Minervois wine appellation.

When the call of the sea beckons, the golden sands of Narbonne-Plage and Gruissan are less than 40 minutes away. These laid-back seaside towns offer family-friendly beaches, water parks, markets and classic Mediterranean charm.

What we love

- A stunning Maison de Maître with high-end contemporary interiors alongside exquisite original features
- The top-floor master bedroom is hugely impressive with its living area and gorgeous open bathroom
- Gather beneath the beams of the wonderful summer kitchen for long lunches and evening meals accompanied by the best Languedoc wine
- The heated swimming pool is just as beautiful with ample space on its poolside terrace
- In a charming old village, it's a short walk to two bakeries, a restaurant, grocery store and the Canal du Midi (perfect for long cycle rides and walks)
- Visit vineyards, markets and historic towns. Other fantastic days out include Carcassonne, Narbonne and the Mediterranean coast

What you should know...

- Air-conditioning is featured in the living room and Bedroom 4 (on the top floor) only.
- A car is needed to be able to reach large supermarkets and fully explore the region – there is gated parking at the house.
- If travelling with youngsters, take extra care on the narrow spiral staircases outside.
