Overview

Orchard Farmhouse is an authentic 18th-century retreat where the rhythm of rural Dordogne life unfolds at its most charming. Steeped in heritage yet renovated for modern comfort, the house opens into 1.75 acres of lawns and fruit-laden orchards, where you can help yourself to cherries, plums or apricots. From the elevated terrace, evenings are spent watching golden light spill across the open countryside, glass in hand and the soft murmur of rural life just beyond the garden.

Inside, character beams and exposed stone walls evoke the building's storied past, balanced by inviting interiors that flow from two relaxed sitting rooms to a sociable farmhouse kitchen and four generously sized bedrooms. Three of the bedrooms are air-conditioned for warm summer nights, and families will appreciate the flexibility of two bathrooms and ample communal space. From the kitchen, step straight out onto the terrace, ideal for alfresco breakfasts or lingering suppers with views over the garden and pool.

The grounds are a joy to explore, from the shaded boules court to the private swimming pool surrounded by loungers. There's table tennis, table football and even a pinball machine, perfect for leisurely afternoons. It's a place designed for shared moments, easy laughter and time that gently stretches.

Just five minutes by car, the riverside town of Lalinde offers shops, cafés and a twice-weekly market, while the wider region invites discovery. Glide down the Dordogne by kayak, visit medieval bastide towns like Monpazier or venture as far as Sarlat-la-Canéda. Bergerac's historic harbour and celebrated vineyards are within easy reach, as are the château-dotted hillsides and storybook villages of the Périgord.

Whether gathering with family or seeking a restorative escape, Orchard Farmhouse captures the essence of relaxed French country living in a setting that is as timeless as it is welcoming.
