Le Mas Repenti

Region: French Riviera (Cote D'Azur) Sleeps: 12

Overview

Framed by vineyards and the soft rustle of olive trees, Le Mas Repenti is a classic Provençal retreat where countryside charm meets refined comfort. This traditional mas invites you to savour slow mornings in the beautiful garden and long afternoons by the swimming pool in this glorious setting in the Var countryside.

Inside, the home has been lovingly restored to preserve its heritage while offering all the ease of modern living. A farmhouse-style kitchen with a characterful Godin range opens onto a shaded dining terrace, ideal for al fresco lunches cooled by the breeze. Spacious and thoughtfully laid out over three floors, Le Mas Repenti offers six inviting bedrooms, three attractive bathrooms and two living rooms designed for easy, generous living. The décor is simple and authentic, letting the light, space and views speak for themselves.

Outside, the garden is a true Provençal dream. Children can play ping-pong and table football, while adults linger over traditional boules matches. The private pool is surrounded by a stone terrace with sun loungers and pretty plants, creating a relaxing setting for sun-soaked days. The covered rear terrace with barbecue and soft seating provides a perfect backdrop for shared meals and relaxed evenings under the stars.

Le Mas Repenti is well placed for exploring the Var's heartland. Just 1.8 km from the charming village of Gonfaron, you'll find local markets, cafés and bakeries within easy reach. The beaches near Hyères and the glittering coastline of Saint-Tropez lie under an hour away, while day trips to Le Lavandou or even Cannes offer a taste of the Riviera's glamorous edge.

This characterful holiday abode offers a setting where Provençal living unfolds with ease, in a wonderful location for exploring this captivating part of the French Riviera hinterland.

Location & Local Information

Set amid the gorgeous vineyards of southern Provence, Le Mas Repenti enjoys a blissful setting just 1.8km from the small Provençal town of Gonfaron. Surrounded by open countryside, vines and the gentle hum of cicadas, this charming house is perfectly placed for exploring the heart of the Var region.

Gonfaron itself offers a taste of Provençal life, with its weekly farmers' market, welcoming café terraces, a small supermarket as well as a pizzeria and restaurant, all within a short drive or leisurely cycle.

Wine lovers will delight in the abundance of local vineyards in the surrounding area, with tastings available at esteemed domaines dotted across the countryside. For a deeper dive into the region's terroir, head to Lorgues (30km), a characterful town famed for its Tuesday morning market and prestigious wineries. Closer to home, the nearby towns of Le Luc (10km) and Pignans (8km) provide additional amenities, including larger supermarkets.

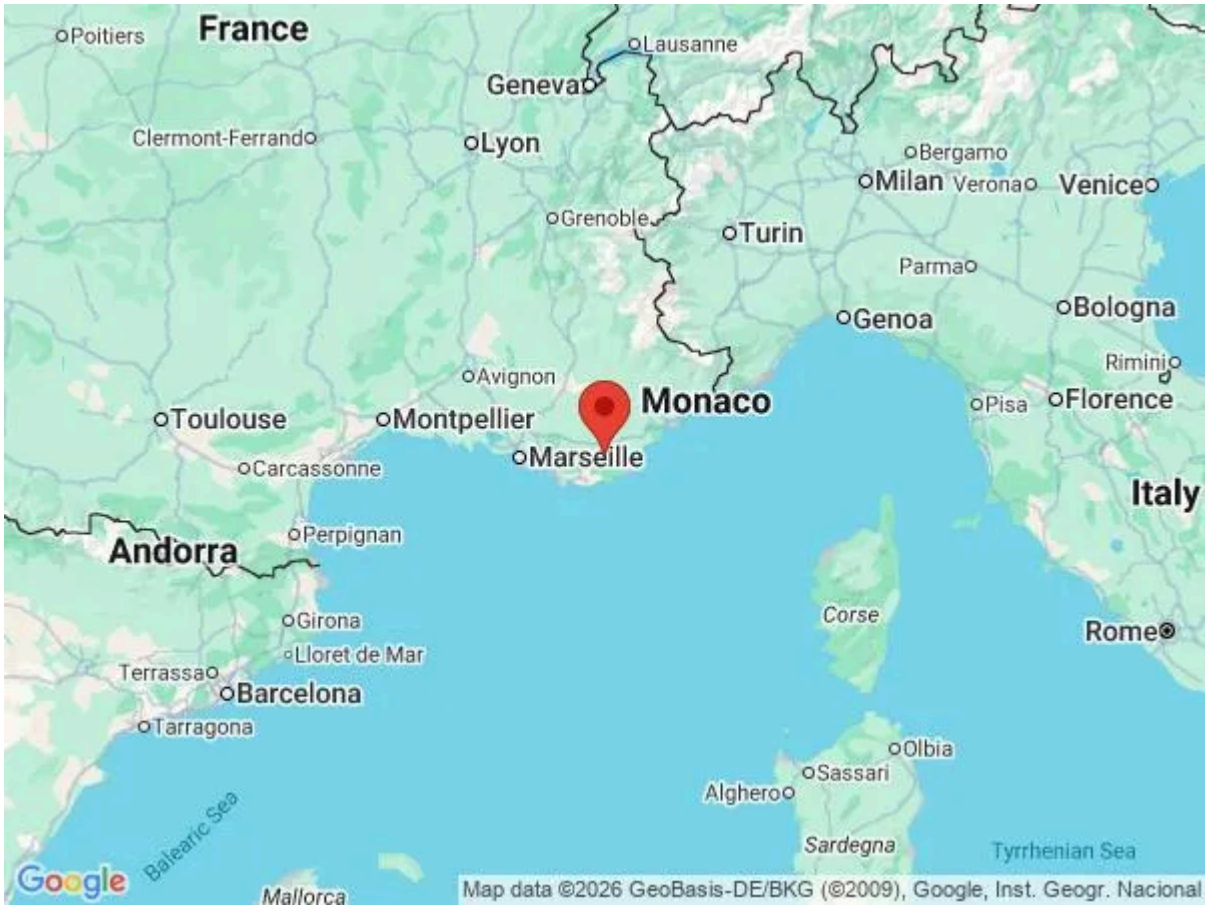

Outdoor pursuits abound, from river adventures along the Argens near Vidauban (20km), to windsurfing the turquoise waters off the Giens Peninsula near Hyères (45km). Boat trips from La Tour Fondue (54km) whisk visitors away to the idyllic Îles d'Hyères, while sunseekers can enjoy sandy beaches and shimmering sea at the likes of Le Lavandou (58km).

Set off through the winding roads of the Maures hills to discover hilltop villages such as La Garde-Freinet (21km) and the medieval charm of Grimaud (30km), eventually reaching the glamour of Saint-Tropez (42km). Whether you're seeking rustic tranquillity or Riviera sparkle, this location offers a seamless blend of both.

Thanks to its convenient access to the A8 autoroute (join near Le Luc or Carnoules), guests at Le Mas Repenti can also reach the cosmopolitan delights of Cannes and Toulon in just over an hour.
