Location & Local Information

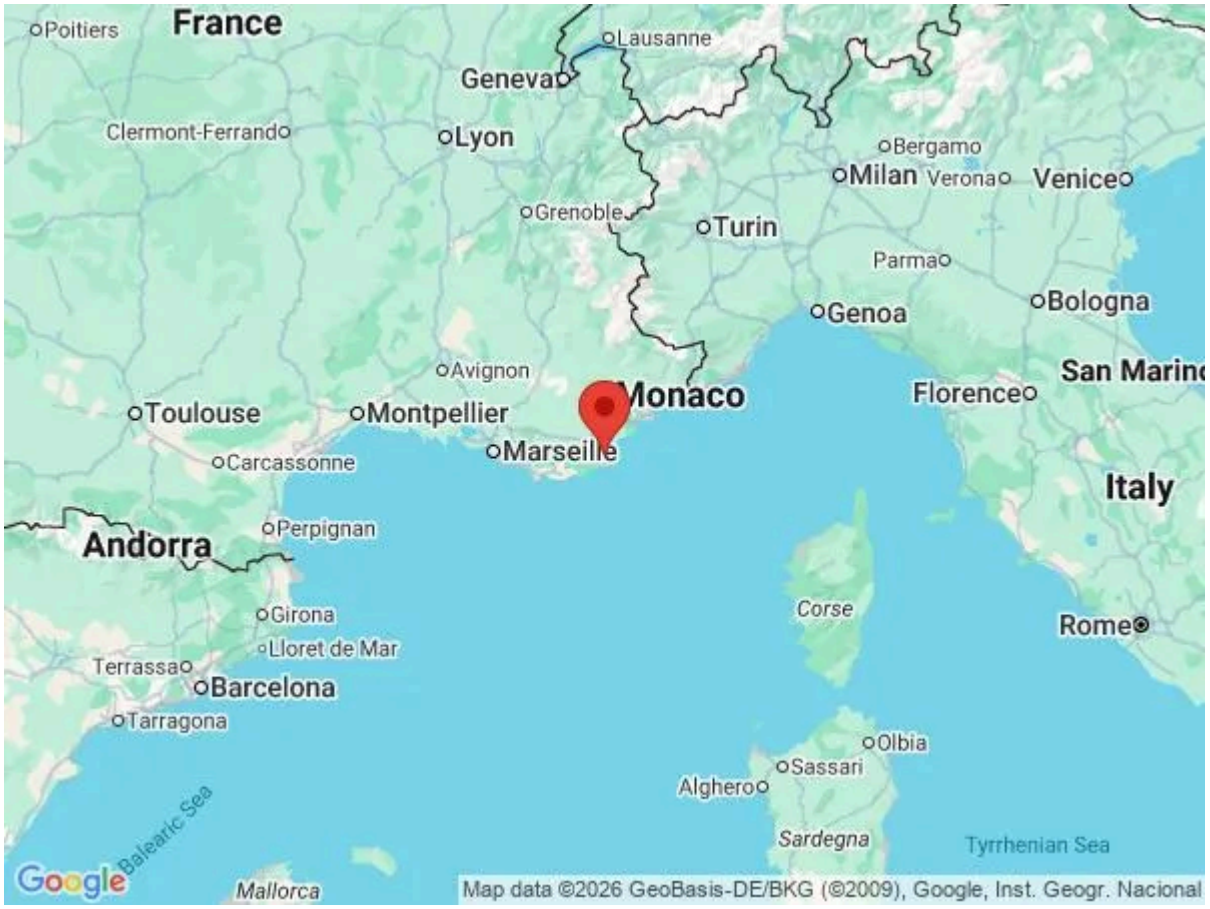

Maison Geronimo is ideally located in the heart of Port Grimaud, a unique Provençal seaside town just 6 km across the bay from the iconic Saint-Tropez. Often referred to as a 'mini-Venice', Port Grimaud is made up of charming, pastel-coloured houses, many with private moorings, designed in the traditional style of Saint-Tropez's fishermen's cottages. The town is mainly traffic-free, with a network of canals, bridges and islands, making it a picturesque setting to explore on foot or by water.

A short stroll from the house leads to a beautiful sandy beach, perfect for relaxing or enjoying water sports. Water taxis run between Port Grimaud and Saint-Tropez, and boat hire is readily available for exploring the bay. Nearby, the 5-star campsite offers beach bars and restaurants, while a large hypermarket and summer amusement park can be found just 5 minutes away in Port Cogolin.

The medieval village of Grimaud offers a taste of local history, culture and cuisine, while Sainte-Maxime has an excellent choice of seaside restaurants. For glamour, nightlife and boutique shopping, Saint-Tropez is just across the bay—a magnet for super yachts, luxury dining and harbour-side charm.
