La Maison Blanche

Region: Dordogne Sleeps: 6

Overview

La Maison Blanche is a beautifully appointed 3-bedroom villa in the hamlet of Puysserampion, Lot-et-Garonne, in southwestern France. This welcoming family home comfortably sleeps six guests, with three ensuite bedrooms, plus an additional single bed adjoining one bedroom, making it ideal for a child and therefore a maximum of seven guests.

The single-storey villa is set within an acre of well-maintained lawned gardens, offering extensive south-facing views over rolling fields and countryside. Inside, a charming farmhouse-style kitchen features a dining table and leads directly to a large covered terrace with a Weber BBQ, perfect for alfresco meals. The property also includes a separate reading room and a spacious living room equipped with a TV and a DVD player for relaxed evenings.

Situated almost midway between the bastide towns of Duras and Eymet, La Maison Blanche is just 40 minutes from Bergerac and its airport. The nearby village of Allemans-du-Dropt, only a 5-minute drive away, offers essential amenities such as a bakery, grocery store, hotel bar, and cafés. The vibrant towns of Duras and Eymet, both 15 minutes away, feature excellent restaurants, markets, and local produce stores, providing an authentic taste of the region.

Location & Local Information

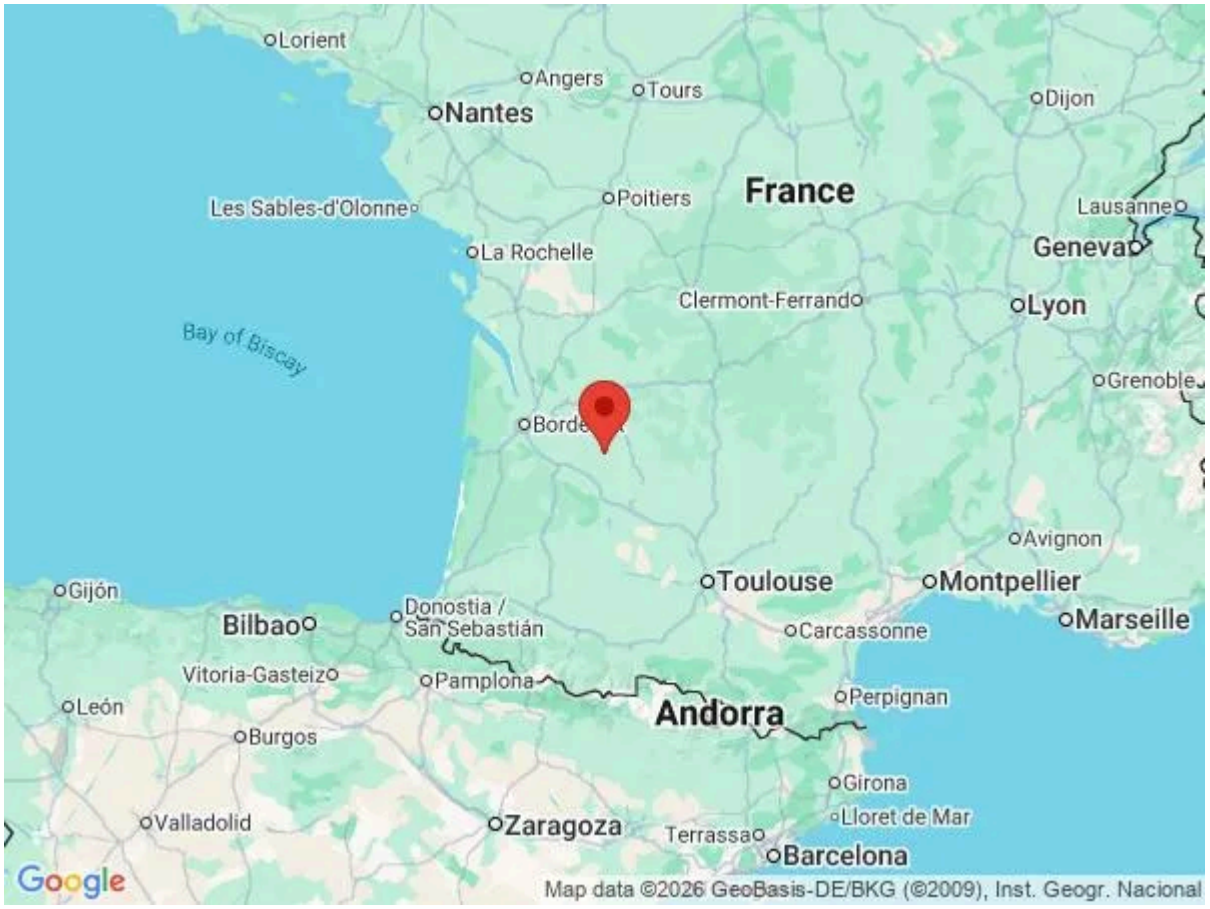

La Maison Blanche is located in the hamlet of Puysserampion, in the heart of the Lot-et-Garonne countryside. Positioned almost equidistant between the charming bastide towns of Duras and Eymet, the property offers an ideal base for exploring southwest France. Just a short drive away, the nearby village of Allemans-du-Dropt provides essential amenities including a bakery, a grocery store, a restaurant, and a welcoming café bar.

For those seeking more variety, the towns of Duras and Eymet, each just 15 minutes away, offer vibrant weekly markets, a wide selection of restaurants and cafés, and boutique shops selling local produce and wines. The area is rich in cultural heritage, with nearby castles, medieval churches, and traditional festivals celebrating music, food, and local craftsmanship.

Bergerac, only 40 minutes away, is perfect for a day trip with its historic old town, riverside walks, and acclaimed wine estates such as those of Monbazillac. Food lovers can indulge in local delicacies, including duck confit, foie gras, and regional cheeses. Whether exploring vineyards, cycling through sunflower-filled fields, or sampling seasonal fare at village markets, La Maison Blanche offers an authentic and enriching French countryside escape.
