Location & Local Information

Maison Siren is a contemporary abode set within a 150-hectare marina resort (Marina de Talaris), a large estate of holiday residences set within the pine forest a short walk from the shores of the Étang de Lacanau (1.5km) near France's stunning Atlantic coast, only a 45-minute drive from Bordeaux International Airport.

A 1km walk away, the heart of the estate features a sports centre with a shared swimming pool (18x9m), tennis courts (reserve ahead) and a restaurant whilst there are horse-riding opportunities on the edge of the resort a little further afield. Do note services are seasonal and opening hours apply.

Furthermore, Lacanau's villages amenities are just a very short drive away (3km). Here you will find a supermarket, bakery, butchers etc as well as a weekly market (June to September) and a Thursday evening night market in the height of the summer.

The Étang de Lacanau, a beautiful freshwater lake perfect for paddleboarding, sailing or wild swimming, lies just beyond the resort, while the Atlantic beaches of Lacanau-Océan are just fifteen minutes away by car. Here, golden sands stretch for miles and surf culture thrives alongside bustling summer beach bars and restaurants. A summer market takes place in Lacanau-Océan from mid-June to September.

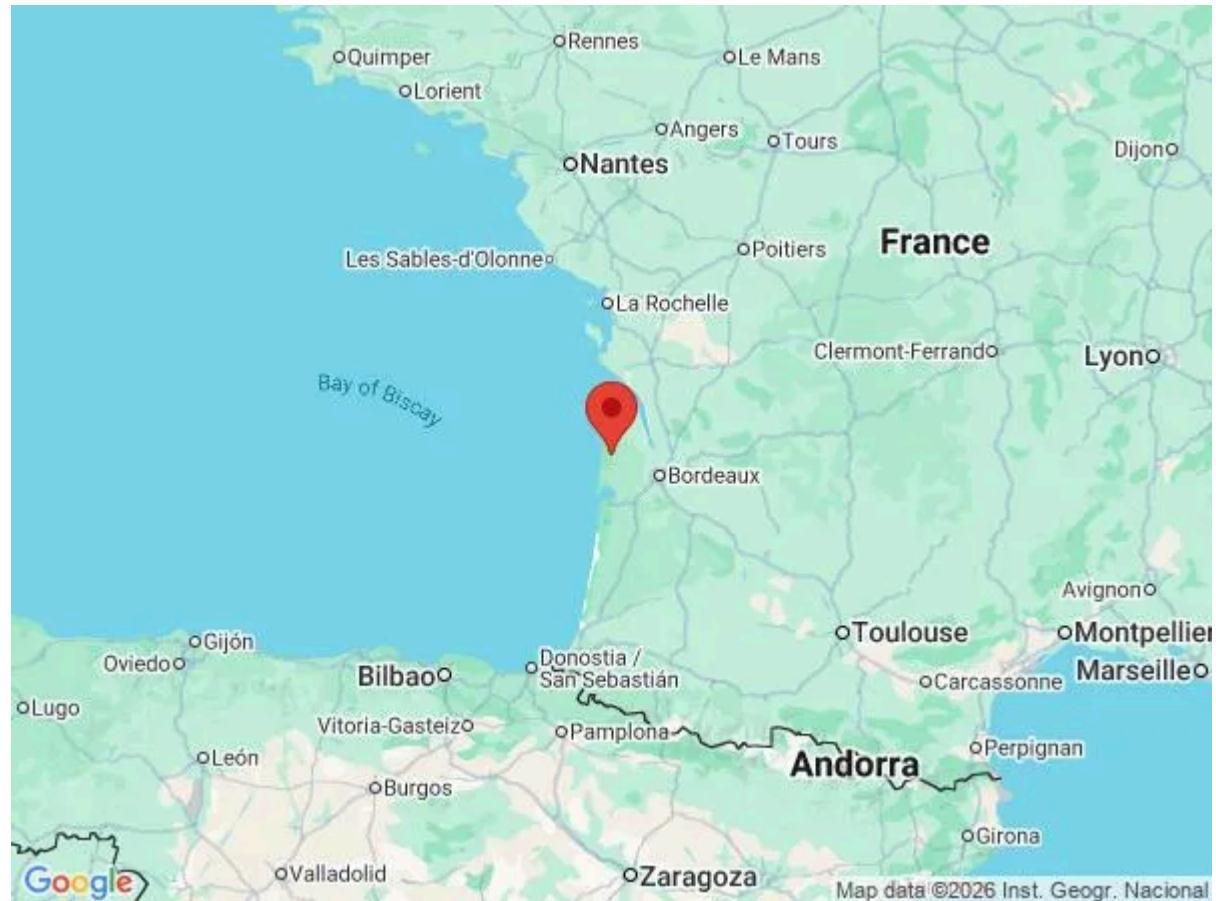

Just a little further north, the vast Lac d'Hourtin-Carcans (18km), the largest freshwater lake in France, offers calm waters, beaches, summer watersports and shaded picnic spots amidst unspoilt nature.

Adventurers will delight in the network of cycling trails that weave through the surrounding forest. These well-maintained paths link lakes, dunes and coastline, creating a scenic playground for all ages.

Wine lovers are perfectly placed to explore the prestigious vineyards of the Médoc, with renowned appellations like Pauillac and Margaux around a 45-minute drive away. Enjoy intimate tastings in family-run châteaux or savour a gastronomic lunch overlooking the vines. For an enriching cultural day trip, the elegant city of Bordeaux (48km) awaits with its world-class museums, neoclassical architecture, vibrant riverside quays and wine-bars.
