What we love

- Villa Egibto boasts a smart dual-living layout under one roof, perfect for two families or multigenerational groups
- The villa's central location close to the beach, shops, and nightlife amkes for an especially relaxing holiday
- The villa included a private pool and two barbecue terraces for relaxed outdoor living

What you should know...

- The dual-layout is great for privacy, but may not suit guests looking for a single open-plan space
- The bunk rooms are better suited to kids or teens rather than adults
- Please note, only the bedrooms with double beds are fitted with air conditioning
- Although the pool has a cover, when this is removed the pool area is unfenced and as such, children should be well supervised
