

Casa Charca

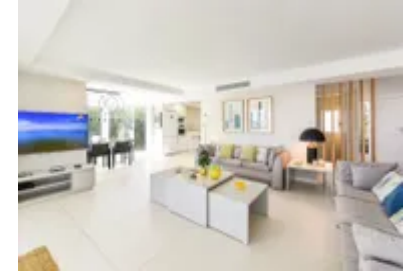

Region: Gran Canaria Sleeps: 14

Overview

Palm trees sway above a gleaming white terrace as the sea breeze drifts in through floor-to-ceiling glass. At Casa Charca, the boundary between inside and out fades with effortless ease. Step through the wide entrance hall and you're greeted by calming tones, contemporary lines and generous spaces designed for both celebration and rest. With two sleek kitchens, multiple dining areas and a sociable open-plan lounge, this villa flows as seamlessly as the nearby tide.

Sleeping up to fourteen guests across seven bedrooms, the villa offers a mix of generous suites and a smaller children's room ideal for younger guests. The private pool glistens just steps from the sand, with loungers lined up for slow afternoons and a water feature adding playful flair.

Beyond the gate lies Maspalomas Beach, a golden expanse that stretches to meet the ocean. With the stylish Meloneras promenade just a short stroll away, days here shift easily between barefoot coastal walks and evenings spent dining under stars.
