Villa Silly Creek

Region: Turks and Caicos Islands Sleeps: 4

Overview

Set against the calm backdrop of Turks and Caicos, this four-tiered retreat at Silly Creek has been crafted to immerse guests in the natural beauty of the island. Multi-level decks frame sweeping views of the ocean, while open-plan indoor and outdoor spaces invite the breeze and the rhythm of the water into every corner of the home. A private dock and sandy beach provide a gateway to gentle adventures, where stand-up paddleboards and kayaks can be launched directly into the turquoise shallows of Silly Creek. A short, scenic walk of around 15 minutes leads to Taylor Bay, a celebrated stretch of soft white sand and shallow, crystal-clear water. This sheltered bay is known for its serenity and is a favorite place to enjoy calm swims or simply bask in the peaceful surroundings. The location highlights both convenience and privacy, with the vibrancy of Grace Bay situated only a 15 to 20 minute drive away, ensuring that restaurants, shopping, and entertainment remain within easy reach while maintaining the sense of seclusion that defines the area.

Inside, the home reveals itself as a sanctuary of comfort and views. Each room has been carefully positioned to capture the surrounding beauty of Silly Creek, Chalk Sound, and the Caribbean Sea. The master suite offers a generous layout with its own bathroom and a private terrace that opens to sweeping ocean panoramas. A second queen suite presents a tranquil retreat with a private bath and a terrace overlooking the brilliant waters of Chalk Sound. The property sits within the exclusive Silly Creek and Chalk Sound neighborhood on the south side of the island, a quiet enclave reached only by Chalk Sound Drive. With its private access, dramatic views, and serene setting, the home offers a rare opportunity to experience Turks and Caicos in a way that feels both elevated and deeply connected to the natural surroundings.

Location & Local Information

Tucked away on the serene southwest coast of Providenciales, Taylor Bay Beach is one of Turks and Caicos' best-kept secrets. This crescent of powdery white sand is lapped by calm, turquoise waters that create the perfect setting for both relaxation and play. The shallow, sheltered bay is ideal for families with young children, offering endless opportunities to wade, swim, and paddle in safety, while couples can enjoy its quiet and romantic atmosphere. Visitors can kayak along the glassy shoreline, spot starfish in the clear shallows, or set sail at sunset on a private charter along the coast. Just a short drive away, world-class dining invites you to savor freshly caught seafood with Caribbean flair, while the lively atmosphere of Grace Bay offers shopping and nightlife. For a touch of adventure, explore the coral reefs alive with tropical fish or wander through Chalk Sound National Park, a breathtaking lagoon dotted with tiny islets. Taylor Bay Beach is the perfect blend of tranquility, adventure, and island luxury.

What we love

- Panoramic ocean views from almost every level of the home and terraces, creating a constant connection to the sea
- Direct access to Silly Creek with a private sandy beach and dock, perfect for paddleboarding, kayaking, and easy water fun
- Taylor Bay's calm, shallow waters just a short walk away, offering one of the most child-friendly and picturesque beaches on the island
- A serene and exclusive neighborhood setting that feels private while still being within easy reach of Grace Bay's shops and restaurants

What you should know...

- The property is located in a quiet residential area reached only via Chalk Sound Drive, the single road in and out of the neighborhood
- Grace Bay and its lively dining and shopping scene are about a 15–20 minute drive away, so a rental car is recommended for convenience
- While the home is designed with multi-level decks and terraces to maximize views, younger children may require supervision on the higher levels
