Overview

In the quiet village of Kaina, in the heart of Apokoronas, Villa Orophelia welcomes you with a harmonious blend of modern elegance and traditional Cretan charm. Surrounded by stone walls, mountain views, and lush greenery, this private villa offers living spaces across two levels and is designed for both families and groups who want privacy, comfort, and easy access to Chania's treasures.

Inside, vaulted wooden ceilings, stone arches, and soft neutral tones set a calming backdrop, while large glass doors flood the interiors with light and lead directly onto the terraces and pool. Step inside and the sense of calm is immediate: the open-plan living area is light and welcoming, with soft stone arches, high timber ceilings and pale walls that keep the rooms cool. The lounge flows naturally into the dining space, where a long wooden table invites guests to gather over home-cooked meals. Just a few steps away, the kitchen is fully equipped, making cooking feel part of the social rhythm of the house. With three spacious bedrooms, all with their own bathrooms, Villa Orophelia is a retreat where every detail has been considered for a peaceful stay.

A private pool, shaded dining spots, and a charcoal barbecue create a relaxed outdoor lifestyle, complemented by views of the White Mountains.
