Villa Tolomeo

Region: Amalfi Coast Sleeps: 12

Overview

Perched above the glittering waters of the Amalfi Coast, Villa Tolomeo is a world apart, a home that feels suspended between sea and sky. Step through its doors and you're greeted by grand vaulted ceilings, soft golden plaster walls, antique chandeliers, and an elegant blend of Baroque-inspired décor with a modern sense of comfort. Each of the villa's suites tells its own story, from velvet headboards and carved frames to delicate chandeliers and windows framing sweeping views of the Mediterranean.

The Orangerie invites lazy afternoons with long loungers and refined sitting areas, while the main living spaces, with their stone fireplaces, ornate mirrors and richly upholstered furniture, create an atmosphere that is both dramatic and deeply inviting. Outdoors, terraces tumble towards the sea, lined with lemon trees and shaded pergolas, the perfect stage for both intimate family gatherings and sunlit evenings over dinner.

Villa Tolomeo sleeps up to twelve guests in exquisite comfort, with en-suite bedrooms that celebrate Italian craftsmanship in every detail. Tucked into the village of Furore, yet offering complete privacy, it's a retreat where the horizon melts into the Gulf of Salerno, Capri shimmers in the distance, and time itself seems to pause.

Location & Local Information

Villa Tolomeo is found in Furore, one of the Amalfi Coast's most enchanting and lesser-known villages. Here, homes cling to the cliffs in dramatic fashion, with narrow pathways winding between vineyards, citrus groves, and ancient terraces. This is an area steeped in tradition, where you can sample local wines, stroll past fishing coves, or follow historic mule tracks that meander above the sea.

Just a short drive away lies Positano with its chic boutiques and buzzing restaurants, while Amalfi and Ravello tempt with cathedrals, villas, and music festivals. From the villa, the view sweeps across the Gulf of Salerno to the island of Capri, offering one of the most breathtaking panoramas in southern Italy. It's a setting that blends natural drama with timeless romance, perfect for those seeking both seclusion and the vibrant culture of the Amalfi Coast.
