Villa Gembira

Overview

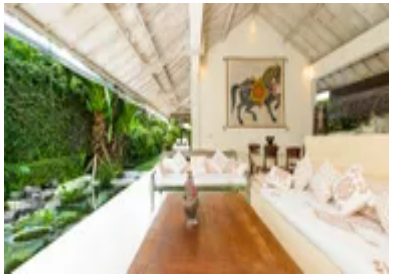

Villa Gembira is a serene two-bedroom Balinese retreat, blending traditional design with the relaxed pace of tropical living. Step through a hand-carved wooden gate and you are welcomed by koi ponds, stone pathways, and a leafy garden that leads you into the open-sided living pavilion. With high, vaulted ceilings and hand-carved furnishings, the space feels both rustic and inviting. A cushioned built-in sofa and elegant dining table make this a homely hub, while the fully equipped kitchen ensures you have everything at hand.

Outdoors, the garden opens to a glistening private swimming pool framed by swaying palms and flowering plants. A shady balé with alang-alang roof offers the perfect spot for an afternoon nap, while loungers invite you to soak up the sun. The villa's two bedrooms each feature canopy-draped beds, televisions, and en-suite bathrooms with tropical touches like alfresco rain showers and a stone bathtub surrounded by greenery.

The more peaceful beach at Batu Belig is even closer, where you can enjoy swimming, sunset strolls, or beachside dining away from the crowds.

The local area blends traditional Balinese life with modern comforts. Temples and ceremonies are a familiar sight, while nearby spas invite you to indulge in Balinese massages and treatments. For a taste of local flavour, you'll find warungs serving authentic dishes, while high-end dining and cocktail spots are only minutes away. What we love

- Charming alang-alang balé for shaded lounging or afternoon naps.
- Tranquil koi ponds adding a sense of calm and character.
- Traditional open-air living pavilion with high ceilings and carved details.

What you should know...

- The open-plan living pavilion is exposed to the tropical climate, which adds to the charm but may not suit everyone.
- Bedrooms are set to the sides of the main pavilion, so families with very young children may prefer to share a suite.
