Casa Ses Vaques

Region: Costa Brava Sleeps: 7

Overview

Just a few steps from the pebbled cove of Sa Tuna, Casa Ses Vaques offers a front-row seat to one of the Costa Brava's most picturesque seaside corners. With room for up to seven guests on a plot of 300 m², this four-bedroom, three-bathroom villa is a relaxed, coastal home perfect for families or small groups seeking a quieter pace and easy access to the beach.

Set over two levels, the villa combines comfort and functionality with its breezy living spaces, fully equipped kitchen, and floor-to-ceiling windows that open out to uninterrupted views of the Mediterranean. Natural light floods the interiors, while the outdoor terrace offers the perfect setting for long lunches, sunset dinners, or simply watching the boats drift by.

The real highlight, however, is the location, just metres from Sa Tuna's clear waters and tucked into the rugged hillsides of Begur. From here, you can swim before breakfast, wander along the Camí de Ronda coastal path, or head into Begur's old town for dinner. Casa Ses Vaques is a no-fuss, well-positioned beach house where the rhythm of the sea sets the pace.

Location & Local Information

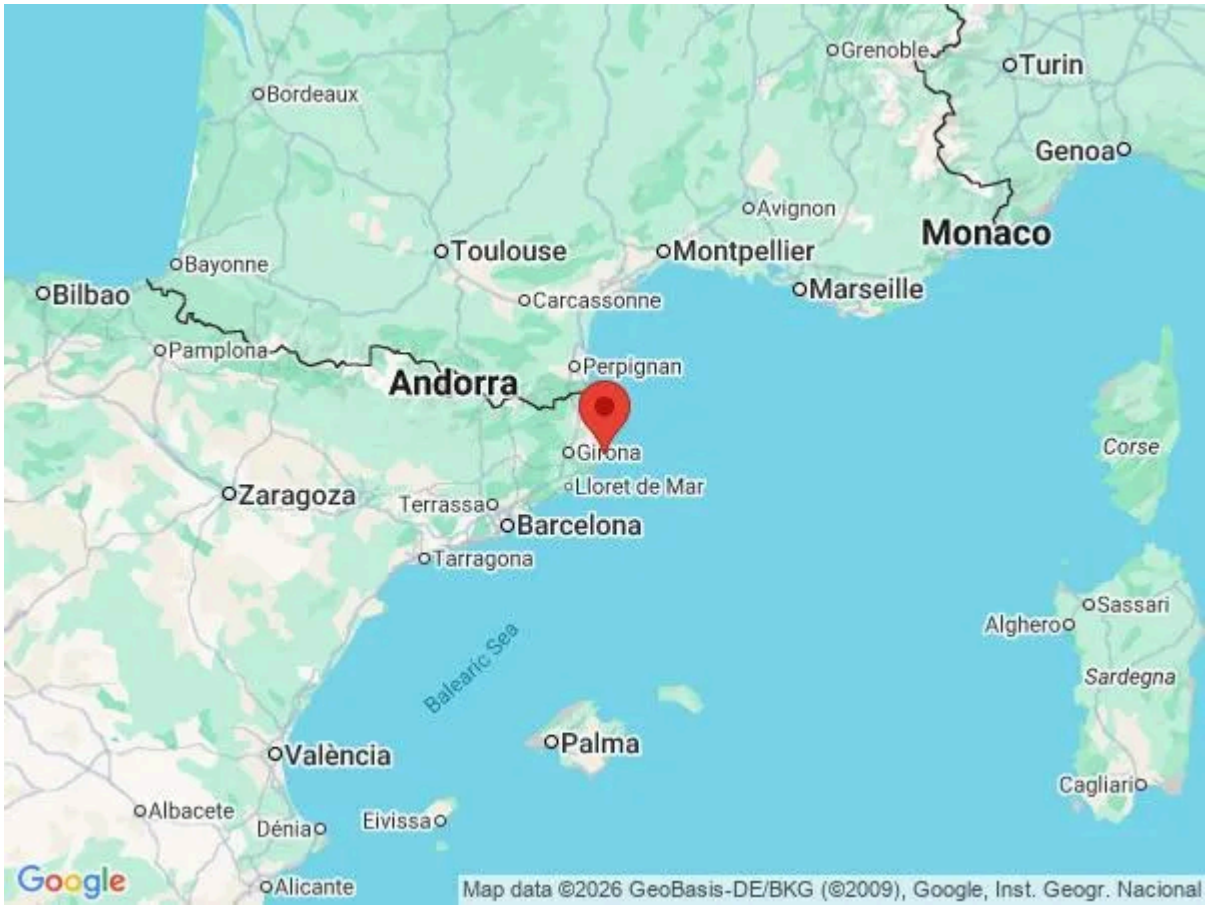

Casa Ses Vaques is set in an enviable spot just above the tiny cove of Sa Tuna, one of the Costa Brava's beautiful coastal enclaves. This stretch of shoreline, known for its pebbled beaches, crystal-clear water and dramatic cliffs, remains quieter than many of the larger resorts nearby, offering a more peaceful, authentic experience.

Guests can stroll down to the beach in minutes for a morning swim or a lazy lunch at one of the seaside restaurants. The scenic Camí de Ronda coastal path passes close by, offering access to hidden coves, pine-scented cliffs and panoramic viewpoints along the way.

The historic hilltop town of Begur is just a short drive away, where you'll find independent boutiques, lively tapas bars and the remains of a medieval castle. Other nearby highlights include the coves of Aiguafreda and Sa Riera, and the region's charming inland villages, all easily reached by car.

What we love

- Casa Ses Vaques is in an unbeatable location, just steps from the calm waters of Sa Tuna cove and close to the gorgeous town of Begur
- The homely, unfussy interiors keep the focus on the view and surroundings of this location in the Costa Brava
- This villa is the perfect peaceful base for exploring the coastal paths, Begur town and nearby coves

What you should know...

- There is no private pool at the property, but the beach is just metres away!
- The house is on multiple levels, and guests have to go down some exterior steps from the street level to reach the entrance, which may not suit guests with mobility issues
- The nearest shops and supermarkets are in Begur, a short drive away, so car hire is recommended. A small car in particular is suggested, as the road to the villa is narrow
