Location & Local Information

Villa Perelada Golf is located within the prestigious Golf de Peralada resort in the Alt Empordà region of Catalonia - an area celebrated for its wide landscapes, local wineries, and cultural heritage. The villa is set inside a secure residential community built around a championship golf course, with easy access to the historic town of Peralada, where guests can explore artisan shops, local dining, and the striking Peralada Castle.

The golden beaches and quiet coves of the Costa Brava are around a 30-minute drive away, offering easy day trips to the coast without sacrificing peace and privacy. Girona Airport can be reached in under an hour, and the French border lies just half an hour to the north, making it a convenient base for exploring Catalonia and beyond. Whether you're here for golf, culture, or coastline, Villa Perelada Golf puts you in a prime position to enjoy it all.

What we love

- Villa Perelada Golf perfect for golf lovers, as it is set within one of Catalonia's top golf resorts, with easy access to an 18-hole championship course
- Spacious, private outdoor areas with a pool, garden, and shaded terrace are ideal for relaxed afternoons
- The villa is in agreat location as a base for exploring both inland Catalonia and the Costa Brava, with beaches just a 30-minute drive away

What you should know...

- While the villa has generous outdoor space, there's no fencing around the pool, so young children will need supervision
- Bedrooms are split across two floors, which may not suit guests with limited mobility
- Car hire is recommended so that guests can explore beyond the villa and the golf course with ease!
- Please be aware that this property does not have a Wi-Fi internet connection
