

Villa De Pradaria

Region: Comporta Sleeps: 11

Overview

Villa de Pradaria is a countryside retreat near Melides designed for families and groups who value both comfort and space. Accommodating up to 11 guests across 300 m², the villa blends modern architecture with a sense of relaxed rural living, creating an inviting base for exploring Portugal's Alentejo coast.

Set among expansive gardens, the property offers a variety of outdoor spaces to enjoy. Long lunches under the shaded pergola, evenings shared in the open-plan living areas, and peaceful moments surrounded by native plants make every day feel special. The villa's layout ensures plenty of room for larger groups, while still encouraging time together - whether that's by the pool, at the dining table, or on a quiet terrace.

With golden beaches just 9 km away and the nearest town only 3 km from the doorstep, Villa de Pradaria strikes a rare balance: complete privacy in nature with easy access to the region's coastline, hills, and villages. It's an ideal setting for those seeking both restful days and new discoveries in one of Portugal's most characterful regions.
