

Neuk House

Region: Kingdom of Fife Sleeps: 10

Overview

Past the striking stone façade and through a green door, Neuk House immediately feels like a coastal storybook come to life. Sunlight spills through grand sash windows, illuminating beautifully preserved corning, polished wood floors and serene, sea-washed tones. In the heart of the house, a cosy living room wraps around a roaring fire, while five elegant bedrooms offer a calming retreat after bracing cliffside walks. The main suite, complete with a window seat, invites you to linger as gulls wheel over the waves below.

Outside, the private garden is tailor-made for slow afternoons and starlit evenings. String lights glow overhead as the fire pit crackles, and wicker chairs beckon for alfresco feasts. From the terrace, uninterrupted sea views stretch across the Fife coast, shifting in light and colour throughout the day.

Just a five-minute stroll from Crail's historic harbour, Neuk House is perfectly placed for coastal adventures, quaint cafés, and hidden beaches.

Location & Local Information

Set above the winding lanes of Crail, Neuk House offers front-row views over the East Neuk's dramatic shoreline. This quiet corner of Fife is famed for its fishing villages, weathered stone cottages and sweeping sea vistas. Crail itself is one of the oldest and most charming, with a picture-book harbour, cobbled streets and a scattering of independent shops, galleries and cafés.

From here, the delights of St Andrews are just fifteen minutes away. Explore medieval ruins, bookshop-lined lanes and the historic Old Course, or stretch your legs along the Fife Coastal Path. Whether you're seeking gourmet seafood, a round of golf or a simple seaside stroll, Neuk House offers access to the best of Scotland's east coast, with the warmth of a peaceful village at your door.
