Villa Srebreno

Region: Peljesac Peninsula Sleeps: 6

Overview

A sleek, stone-built retreat with commanding views of the Adriatic, Villa Srebreno is a three-bedroom property that brings modern comfort and clean design to the serene slopes near Slano. Designed for effortless indoor-outdoor living, the villa combines contemporary interiors with sun-drenched terraces and a private pool that seems to hover above the hillside.

Each of the three bedrooms is outfitted with a king-size bed, private en-suite, and sea views, offering a private sanctuary for every guest. One bedroom features a striking conservatory-style ceiling, perfect for stargazing from the comfort of bed. The open-plan living, kitchen, and dining space feels calm and considered, with floor-to-ceiling glass drawing the outdoors in.

Step outside to enjoy a summer kitchen, shaded dining area, and sun loungers poised beside the inviting pool. Whether you're hosting al fresco dinners, swimming at sunset, or simply unwinding with a glass of Dalmatian wine, Villa Srebreno offers a relaxed, design-led base for discovering the coast.

Location & Local Information

Villa Srebreno sits just outside the peaceful coastal village of Slano, offering a relaxed base within easy reach of Dubrovnik's historic heart. Tucked into the hillside, the property enjoys sweeping sea views and a quiet residential setting, ideal for those looking to slow the pace without losing touch with the region's cultural highlights.

Slano itself is a charming spot to explore, with a small marina, a pebble beach, and a growing number of local tavernas serving fresh seafood and Croatian wines. For a livelier day out, the UNESCO-listed Old Town of Dubrovnik is around 30 minutes by car, perfect for sightseeing, shopping, or an evening stroll along the city walls.
