

Casa Natureza

Region: Lagoa    Sleeps: 6

---

Overview

Casa Natureza is a recently renovated three-bedroom villa set in the quiet wine region of Caramujeira, just 1.5 km from the iconic Praia da Marinha and close to the dramatic coastline of Benagil. Completed in June 2025, the property blends thoughtful design with modern comfort, offering a calm and well-equipped base for families or small groups.

Each of the three bedrooms has its own en-suite bathroom, and the interiors are light-filled and minimal, with underfloor heating and cooling, air conditioning in all bedrooms, and a fibre Wi-Fi connection. The open-plan kitchen comes fully equipped with high-end appliances, while the living spaces are geared for easy, relaxed holiday living.

Outdoors, guests can enjoy a private heated pool, ocean-view terrace, and a shaded veranda for al fresco dining. Whether you're exploring nearby beaches or unwinding with music from the Sonos system and a drink in hand, Casa Natureza offers a comfortable and peaceful setting to experience the Algarve's southern coast.

Location & Local Information

Casa Natureza sits in Caramujeira, one of the Algarve’s most scenic coastal regions, known for its dramatic cliffs, quiet vineyards, and standout beaches. The villa is just 1.5 km from Praia da Marinha - often ranked among Europe’s best - and close to Benagil, where visitors can explore the famous sea caves by boat or kayak.

While the setting feels peaceful and private, it’s also well connected. The lively town of Carvoeiro is only 5 km away, offering a range of restaurants, cafés, and shops, along with a family-friendly beach. Other nearby beaches, including Praia de Albandeira and Praia do Carvalho, make day-to-day exploring easy and varied.

Whether you’re in search of coastal walks, fresh seafood, or simply a quiet spot to unwind, Casa Natureza’s location offers a balance of natural beauty and accessibility on Portugal’s southern coast.
