Location & Local Information

With its cobbled streets and age-old charm, the bustling town of Saint-Rémy-de-Provence offers an enchanting taste of Provençal life. Just 900m from the heart of the historic centre, guests can enjoy easy access to atmospheric restaurants, contemporary galleries and the wonderful Wednesday morning market. Encircled by ancient plane trees and elegant shuttered façades, Saint-Rémy hums with a rich tapestry of history and artistic legacy - none more so than Van Gogh, who created many of his famed works in this very setting. The town also serves as a scenic gateway to the captivating landscapes of Les Alpilles.

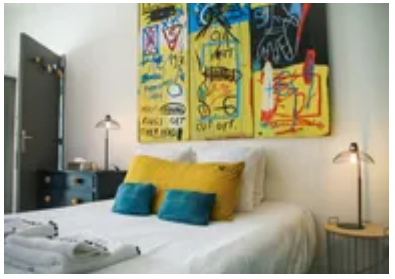

The jagged limestone ridges of Les Alpilles rise just beyond the town, offering a haven for outdoor pursuits including walking, cycling and leisurely drives. The hillsides are awash with olive groves, pine trees and vineyards, while well-marked trails reveal sweeping vistas, peaceful chapels and shaded forest paths. Whether exploring by foot or e-bike, the natural splendour of the region is simply irresistible.

Scattered across the surrounding hills are villages full of character. Les Baux-de-Provence (9km) impresses with its dramatic cliffside ruins and the immersive art experience of Carrières des Lumières (8.5km). The nearby village of Eygalières (13km) charms with its tranquil lanes, gourmet eateries and lively Friday market, while Maussane-les-Alpilles (9.5km) is beloved for its artisanal olive oils and welcoming bistros.

For those inclined to venture further, the Roman treasures and vibrant markets of Arles (25km) await, along with the wild beauty of the Camargue, home to flamingos, salt flats and free-roaming white horses. For a memorable day out, the majestic Roman aqueduct at Le Pont du Gard (40km) is well worth the trip, while the cultural richness of Avignon (22km) and the antique shops of L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue (33km) promise even more Provençal allure.
