Overview

Casa Redonda is a two-bedroom villa set in peaceful countryside just outside Carvoeiro, offering a relaxed and comfortable base for Algarve holidays. With its circular layout, private pool, and thoughtful touches, the house is well-suited to couples, friends, or a small family looking for space to unwind without losing easy access to the coast.

Inside, the villa is compact but well-organised: two bright bedrooms (one double, one twin), two modern bathrooms, a fully equipped kitchen, and a cosy living area with a fireplace and views of the garden. Doors open onto a shaded terrace with outdoor dining, a barbecue, and space to lounge by the pool.

The garden is edged with local greenery, and the poolside area gets plenty of sun throughout the day - ideal for slow mornings or lazy afternoons. For those who want to explore, Carvoeiro's beach, restaurants, and cliff walks are just a short drive away.

Casa Redonda combines low-key comfort with access to some of the Algarve's best-loved spots - a good choice for guests who want a quieter setting without feeling remote.

Location & Local Information

Carvoeiro sits on the Algarve coast and is known for its golden sandy beach, limestone cliffs and welcoming village atmosphere.

Your villa, Casa Redonda, is just a 3.4 km drive from the heart of Carvoeiro - meaning you have easy access to the town's cafés, seafront dining and beach activities, yet you're removed enough to benefit from quieter surroundings.

From your base, you can explore the local coastline via its walking trails or hop into the town when you wish to browse markets, enjoy a fresh seafood meal or join a boat tour of sea caves.

With parking available onsite and the main road just a short turn away, the villa also offers convenient access for day trips further afield - whether inland to historic villages or along the coast to scenic lookout points.
