

Villa Theikos

Region: Corfu Sleeps: 11

Overview

Perched in the peaceful hills of Corfu, this five-bedroom villa offers a stylish retreat with sweeping views across the Ionian Sea, surrounding mountains, and lush countryside. Designed for comfort and contemporary elegance, it serves as a refined base from which to explore the island.

The ground floor features a light-filled open-plan living and dining area, complemented by a fully equipped kitchen in vibrant red tones. A spacious double bedroom with an en-suite bathroom, complete with a bathtub, offers a serene escape. A guest WC and laundry room provide added convenience. A second bedroom is also located on this level, accessible independently from the terrace on the seaward side. It features an en-suite bathroom and a minifridge, making it ideal for guests seeking added privacy.

Upstairs, two twin bedrooms and one double bedroom each benefit from en-suite shower rooms and a shared balcony with seating, ideal for soaking in the uninterrupted sea views.

Outdoors, a private infinity pool invites restorative swims, while the expansive terrace and shaded dining area offer a perfect setting for al fresco dining and relaxed afternoons. Elevated above the landscape, the villa captures striking vistas at every turn. A private paved walking path leads you to a quiet spot on the beach, only shared with the complex.

Location & Local Information

The island of Corfu lies in the Ionian Sea off Greece’s north-western coast. Its long and layered history has shaped a place of lush green hills, olive groves, sweeping bays, and a richly variegated character: Venetian palazzi and fortresses, British-era influences, and traditional Greek village life all intertwine.

For visitors, Corfu offers a lovely mixture of natural beauty and cultural heritage: from the UNESCO-listed old town of Corfu Town (Kerkyra) with its cobbled alleys and Venetian influence, to quieter inland villages and coastal spots where life moves at an easy pace. Getting around can be a bit slower than on flat terrain, roads wind through hills and olive groves, so if you’re keen to explore beyond the tourist hubs, renting a car or scooter is a good idea.

The island’s appeal also lies in its variety: high-season beach resorts, sleepy inland hamlets, and everything in between. Whether you’re after the buzz of a seaside promenade or a quiet dinner on a village square under the olive trees, Corfu delivers.
