Villa Big Blue

Region: Southern Corsica Sleeps: 10

Overview

Cradled by the heady scent of Corsican maquis and pine trees, this contemporary villa invites guests into a world where modern ease meets untamed island beauty. With its sleek lines, sun-washed terrace and generous use of glass, the architecture embraces the landscape at every turn. A dusty route leads down to a beautiful beach around 10 minutes on foot, while the villa itself offers a soothing base from which to unwind, reconnect and explore southern Corsica at your own pace.

The open-plan interiors are filled with light and calm, where a superbly equipped kitchen with central island flows into a relaxed lounge and dining space designed for sociable gatherings. Large glass doors extend the living space out onto a broad decked terrace, where a heated swimming pool sparkles against a backdrop of greenery and al-fresco living takes precedence from morning through evening.

With air-conditioning throughout, all four bedrooms are thoughtfully finished with double beds, TVs and sleek en suites. The master suite features a dressing area and private terrace for added privacy, while the lower-level quad room offers a flexible set-up and two separate bathrooms.

Outside, slow summer days unfold between refreshing swims, leisurely barbecues and games of pétanque under Corsica's golden light. A shaded dining area, plancha and electric barbecue set the tone for laid-back meals, while loungers and soft cushions invite you to bask in the sun. Guests are welcomed with treats such as local delicacies, wine and coffee capsules, and optional payable extras like breakfast basket delivery or additional cleaning are possible to add comfort throughout the stay.

Perfectly positioned just 15 minutes from Figari Airport, the villa offers access to the cinematic citadel of Bonifacio, the famous beaches of Porto Vecchio and a scattering of charming hilltop villages. The nearest village is only 4.5km away, making daily essentials simple to reach without disturbing the villa's rural atmosphere.

Balancing natural beauty with convenience, Villa Big Blue offers an effortlessly stylish gateway to the soul of southwestern Corsica.

Location & Local Information

Set in the stunning Figari region of southern Corsica, Villa Big Blue sits on a beautiful estate shared with Villa Alta Mare (https://www.oliverstravels.com/france/corsica/southern-corsica/villa-alta-mare/). Enveloped by wild maquis and pines, the setting exudes a rural and natural beauty, yet only 15 minutes by car from Figari Airport. It's an ideal base to unwind and reconnect with nature, whether through scenic coastal strolls or afternoons by the sea.

A narrow sandy beach awaits around a 10-minute downhill walk via a dusty path and road (you could also drive, although it's an unmade track - locals often opt to park and walk). Here, clear waters invite swimming or snorkelling by the rocks, while the beach is perfect for sunbathing (don't forget your parasol for shade and picnic). The surrounding coastline is scattered with other wild spots and idyllic beaches – we especially love Plage de la Tonnara (16.5km) and the iconic crescent of Roccapina (20km), offering a calmer alternative to southern Corsica's more frequented shores near Porto Vecchio.

Essential amenities can be found in the nearby village just 4.5km away, home to two small supermarkets and a couple of places to eat for a taste of local life. From there, the region opens up to Corsica's most celebrated sights. Bonifacio (24km), with its dramatic clifftop citadel and lively marina, makes for a memorable day trip, as do boat excursions to the crystalline coves of the Lavezzi Islands. A little further, Porto Vecchio (32km) offers charming old-town streets and world-famous beaches like Palombaggia and Santa Giulia, best visited in the quieter months.

For a deeper dive into Corsican heritage, head north to Sartène (37km), where history echoes through stone alleyways, shaded squares and surrounding vineyards.

Whether you seek secluded shores, cultural gems or breathtaking landscapes, this villa's location captures the very essence of Corsica's untamed charm.
