Overview

As you wind up the quiet hillside road past lemon groves and olive trees, the pale white curves of Villa Dei Due Golfi come into view, perched proudly above the Tyrrhenian Sea. This modern villa unfolds with understated confidence, where clean architectural lines and expansive windows allow the views to take centre stage. Step through the front gates and you're met by tiered stone terraces and a sense of openness that flows naturally between indoors and out.

Inside, the décor is fresh and unfussy, with soft neutral tones, sleek modern furnishings, and subtle coastal touches that mirror the calm of the surrounding seascape. A spiral staircase leads from the open-plan kitchen and dining space to an airy lounge with a fireplace and glass doors framing uninterrupted sea views. Each of the five bedrooms has its own en-suite bathroom, with thoughtful detailing throughout.

Outside, the infinity pool stretches towards the cliffs, with loungers arranged for slow sun-drenched afternoons. The fully equipped outdoor kitchen below the pool is made for lingering dinners and storytelling under the stars. Surrounded by Mediterranean vegetation and panoramic coastal views, this is a place for relaxed elegance, slow living, and soaking up the magic of the Sorrento peninsula.
