Mas Vilafreser

Region: Girona Sleeps: 15

Overview

Experience the soul of Catalonia at this beautifully restored residence with origins dating back to the 16th century. Mas Vilafreser offers 1,322 m² of living space set within a vast 76,000 m² estate with woodland, walking trails and a swimming pool. Perfectly positioned between the historic town of Girona and artistic Figueres, it provides a rare setting for extended families or groups of friends to gather and enjoy time together.

Arrival is marked by towering cypress trees and a grand entrance door, leading into characterful interiors with tiled floors, arched ceilings and generous communal spaces. The ground floor includes welcoming living areas such as the billiard and music room and a lounge with Smart TV, while upper floors reveal further cosy lounges, a kitchen blending contemporary and traditional styles, and an impressive top-floor office and library with panoramic views. Throughout the house, there is ample space to retreat quietly or come together socially.

The former farmhouse sleeps up to 15 guests across seven inviting bedrooms, five with private bathrooms. Two air-conditioned queen-size bedrooms are located on the ground floor, including one featuring an original 17th-century press, while upstairs there are four further air-conditioned sleeping arrangements including a duplex double with sofa-bed, alongside three additional bedrooms with fans. Guests also enjoy access to a gym, sauna, barbecues, sports facilities and woodland grounds, while remaining well connected to Banyoles, Girona, Figueres and the beaches and coves of the Costa Brava.

Location & Local Information

Mas Vilafreser enjoys an exceptional natural setting with its own private woodland with walking trails. Located in the Empordà region of Catalonia, it sits almost equidistant between Girona and Figueres, and just half an hour from the Costa Brava. Girona Airport is only 32km away, whilst Barcelona Airport, less than a two-hour drive.

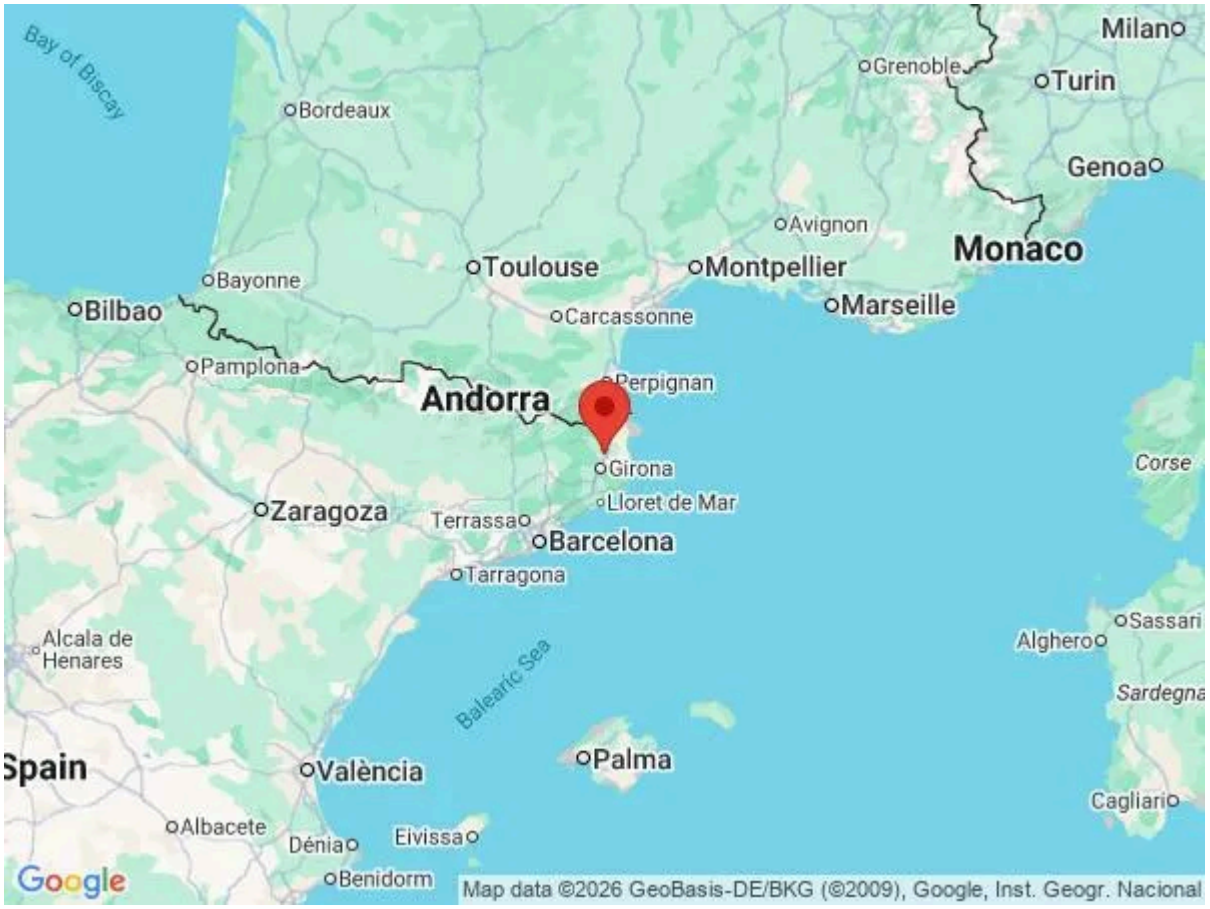

This is authentic Catalonia, an ideal region for wonderful walks, hikes, cycling (especially along the Pla de l'Estany greenway) and trail running. Less than half an hour away, Lake Banyoles offers a perimeter walking path, birdwatching opportunities, kayaking and summer swimming spots such as Caseta de Fusta (18km). Don't miss the beautiful Romanesque church in the lakeside hamlet of Porqueres. The town of Banyoles (14km) itself will enchant you with its medieval centre, museums and festivities. Its lively Wednesday morning market is ideal for stocking up on fresh regional produce.

Art lovers will be keen to spend the day in Figueres (25km), the birthplace of Salvador Dalí and home to the quirky Dalí Theatre-Museum. Meanwhile, head south to the characterful town of Girona (23km) to explore its city walls, old stone staircases, beautifully preserved medieval and Jewish quarters and impressive cathedral.

If you can find the time, venture to the Catalonian coast. From the long sandy beach at L'Estartit (36km) to the picture-perfect coves and fishing villages around Llafranc and Calella de Palafrugell (55km), the Costa Brava offers guests a coastal experience rich in variety and natural beauty. From L'Estartit, take a boat trip out to the protected Medes Islands, a paradise for keen kayakers, snorkellers and diving enthusiasts.
