Location & Local Information

Perched in the Cap de la Barra area of L'Estartit, Villa Montgri enjoys one of the most scenic spots on the Costa Brava. Its elevated position offers uninterrupted views across the Bay of Pals, Cap de Begur, and the shimmering Mediterranean. Just a 10 minute walk will take you to the closest beach, and not much further you will find restaurants, bars and other amenities.

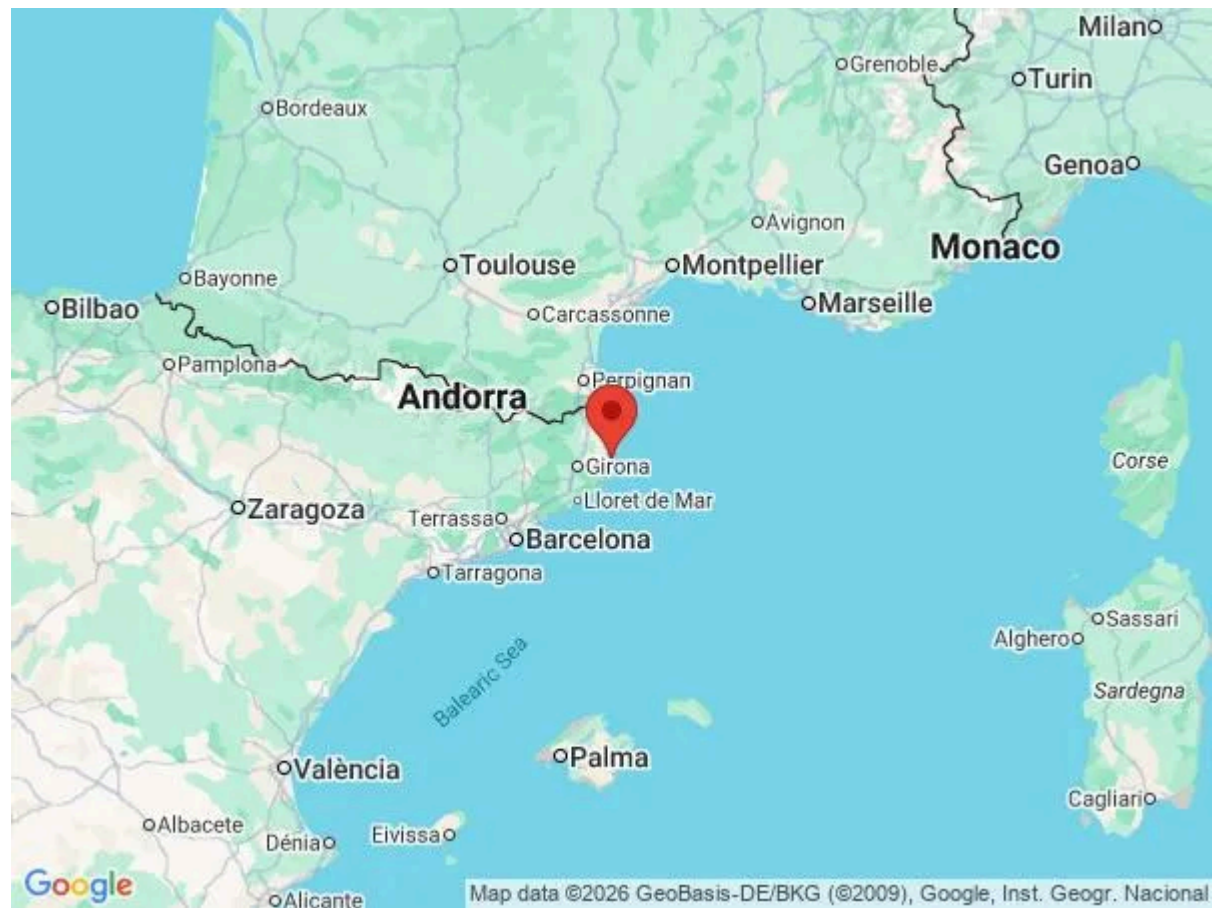

Nature lovers will appreciate the villa's proximity to the Montgrí, Medes Islands and Baix Ter Natural Park; a protected area rich in hiking trails, coastal paths, and marine biodiversity. The famous Illes Medes are just offshore, offering opportunities for diving, snorkelling, and boat excursions.

A short drive from the villa brings you to a cluster of charming Catalan towns, each with its own distinct character. Pals, with its cobbled medieval centre, is perfect for a morning wander and a long lunch in the square. In Begur, you'll find bohemian boutiques, whitewashed houses, and access to some of the most photogenic coves on the Costa Brava. Torroella de Montgrí offers a more traditional pace, with its weekly market, historic architecture, and laid-back cafés. Each town is worth a visit and makes for an easy half-day trip from the villa.

For a cultural day out, Girona is less than an hour away and well worth the journey. Known for its beautifully preserved old town, Gothic cathedral, and ancient Roman walls, the city has a vibrant energy and a strong food scene that ranges from traditional Catalan eateries to Michelin-starred restaurants. The colourful houses along the Onyar River and the historic Jewish Quarter are particularly striking. Whether you're exploring museums, browsing boutiques, or enjoying a coffee in a sunlit square, Girona adds a rich layer of culture to your coastal getaway.
