Overview

Just moments from the rolling Atlantic and Anglet's celebrated coastline, Maison Ananas is a contemporary home where stylish interiors meets laid-back living. In a residential neighbourhood around a 10-minute walk from the beach, this architect-designed villa offers a superbly located base for visiting the Basque coast.

Inside, the villa unfolds over two main levels, with generous proportions and a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor spaces. At garden level, four thoughtfully designed bedrooms allow Maison Ananas to sleep up to 8 guests. The master bedroom, with its own en suite with Italian shower, opens directly onto the garden, while additional bedrooms (two doubles and a children's twin) share a family bathroom.

Upstairs, light floods through expansive windows into the open-plan living area. Ocean glimpses beckon over the rooftops, whilst an upper terrace invites al fresco dining and sunset aperitifs. The modern kitchen flows into the sociable dining space and relaxed TV lounge, all styled with understated modern flair. A lift offers easy access between levels, ideal for unloading shopping bags and stocking the fridge with local produce.

Meanwhile, the garden is designed for unwinding, with a heated pool framed by a decked terrace and summer kitchen with plancha. Whether you're dining outdoors or basking on the sun beds beside palms and olive trees, Maison Ananas captures the essence of effortless coastal living.

Set in Anglet, Maison Ananas places you at the heart of the Basque region's vibrant triad. Surf-friendly beaches are just a short stroll away, while Biarritz and Bayonne are easily reached by car, offering world-class cuisine, rich cultural heritage and lively markets. For families or groups seeking a contemporary base in a great location, Maison Ananas promises a fun, beach-filled escape.
