The house is set in beautiful grounds in a semi-rural area on the edge of a typical Landes village. There's a bakery just a short drive/cycle ride away with a small café and a 24-hour baguette dispenser. Just 8km by car, the town of Saint-Vincent-de-Tyrosse provides all essentials, including a train station and a well-stocked supermarket with a fresh fish, meat and cheese counter for your gourmet gatherings.

Within easy reach, the chic seaside town of Hossegor (18km) beckons with its vibrant culinary, shopping and surfing scene. Spend mornings wandering the shores of Lac d'Hossegor, where pine trees fringe the water and cafés invite you to linger over coffee or lunch. The calm waters of the lake are perfect for swimming, paddleboarding and watersports, while the golden sands of Plage d'Hossegor draw surfers from around the world to ride its famed Atlantic waves.

Don't miss Hossegor's daily covered market or Les Halles Gourmands on Thursday summer evenings – a celebration of the region's food and wine. Capbreton (19.5km) is another must-visit for food lovers, with its bustling fish market by the port offering the freshest daily catch.

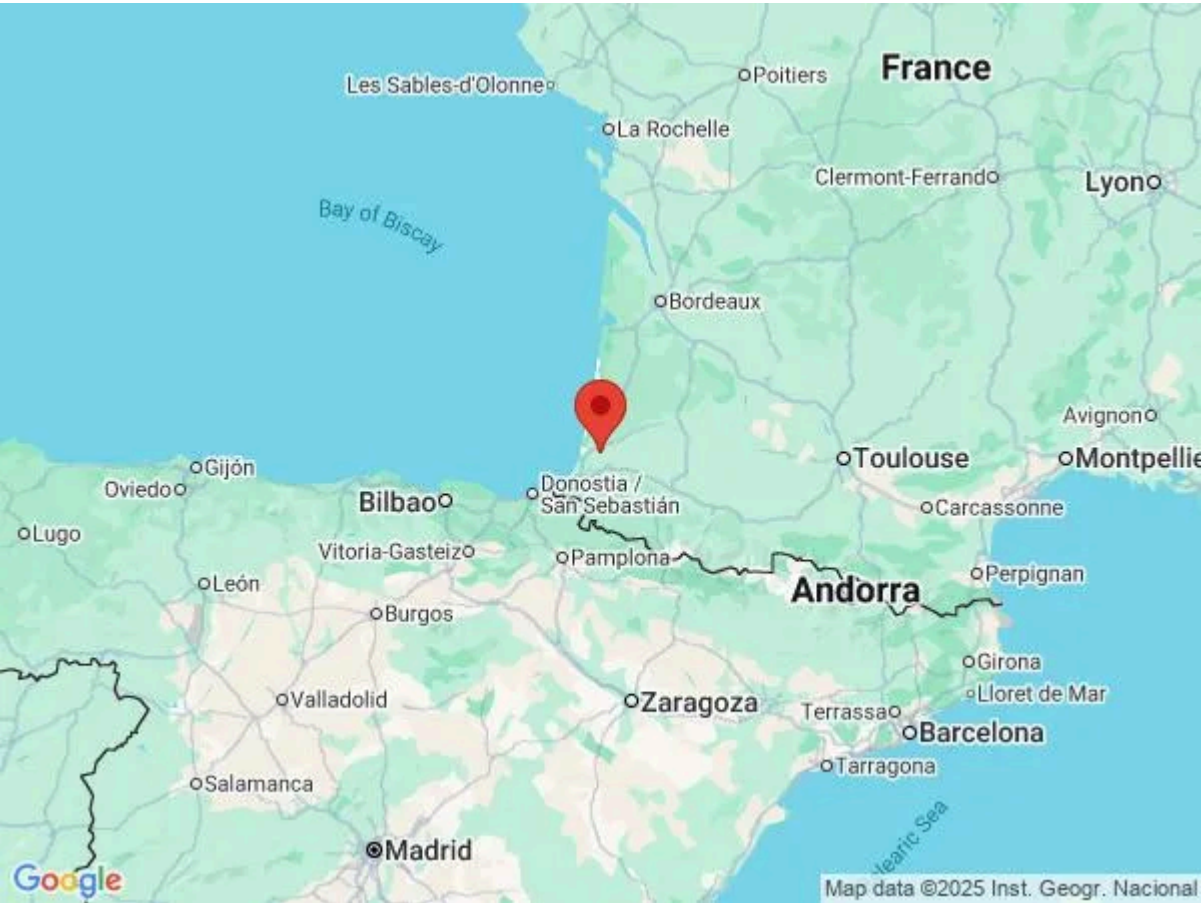

For nature lovers, the nearby Étang Blanc and Étang Noir are serene escapes around 20 minutes by car – try canoeing or paddleboarding on the larger étang, or follow trails through reed beds and wetlands on foot in the smaller reserve. The pine-backed beaches of Seignosse (21km) are ideal for picnics, walks or cycling adventures along the forested coastal trails.

Golfers are spoilt for choice, with Golf d'Hossegor (18km), Golf de Seignosse (18.5km) and Robert Trent Jones' Moliets-et-Maa course (38km) all within easy reach. Alternatively, discover the exceptional courses around Biarritz including NAS Golf Chiberta (43km).
