Villa Stellina

Region: Amalfi Coast Sleeps: 12

Overview

Perched above the sparkling sweep of the Amalfi Coast, Villa Stellina unfolds like a Mediterranean daydream. Tucked within Ravello's historic heart, yet hidden behind its own wooded path and terraced garden, this six-bedroom villa feels like a private retreat with a painter's palette of views. Every corner of the garden, terrace and interior reveals new perspectives, on lemon-scented hills, tiled rooftops, and the deep blue of the Tyrrhenian Sea.

Inside, whitewashed archways and vaulted ceilings lend a cool calm, while splashes of colour from local ceramics and curated artworks breathe joyful life into the interiors. The villa spans three levels, offering six elegant bedrooms, all en suite and thoughtfully appointed with modern comforts, from writing desks and smart TVs to Bluetooth speakers and sea-facing terraces.

Step out into the sun and a series of terraces beckon: dine alfresco under a vine-draped pergola, unwind by the hydromassage pool, or follow the garden path to lounge beneath ancient pines. The kitchen, both indoor and outdoor, is fully equipped for family feasts or lazy breakfasts. And when you're ready to explore, a gentle two-minute stroll leads you straight into the heart of Ravello, where piazzas hum with life and timeless charm lingers in the air.

Location & Local Information

Villa Stellina boasts a coveted location just two minutes from Ravello's Piazza Duomo, yet it feels worlds away, hidden within a private garden path that wraps quietly through pine trees and Mediterranean flora. Ravello itself is a jewel of the Amalfi Coast, famed for its music festivals, grand villas and spellbinding views over sea-carved cliffs. Despite its small size, the town offers plenty of charm: wander the cobbled lanes for local boutiques, trattorias, and the unforgettable gardens of Villa Rufolo and Villa Cimbrone.

Within a short drive you can reach Amalfi's historic port, the pastel-hued streets of Positano, and the golden sands of Minori and Maiori. For history lovers, Pompeii is just over an hour away, while those seeking adventure can hike the scenic trails above the coastline. From culture to coast, Villa Stellina's location invites you to experience the very best of Campania.
