Retractable awnings allow the area to be enjoyed under soft shade, and the terrace becomes a gentle hub for family gatherings, relaxed alfresco dining, and unhurried afternoons by the water. The modern kitchen is fitted with a central island that encourages easy meals and casual conversation, while the living area provides a cosy setting for unwinding with air conditioning ensuring a pleasant atmosphere year round. A calming palette of whites, tans, and soft blues is complemented by elegant artwork to create a soothing environment throughout the villa.

A second king room also features its own ensuite and a comfortable reading chair that invites restful pauses. The third bedroom is designed with younger guests in mind with twin beds, playful accents, and a cosy bean bag chair, while the fourth king room forms another tranquil ensuite retreat.
