Villa Deep Canyon

Region: Los Angeles Sleeps: 10

Overview

Set within the quiet folds of Beverly Hills' Deep Canyon, this striking contemporary residence rises behind manicured greenery, its clean angles and stacked stone façade hinting at the refinement within. Step through the oversized front door and you're greeted by a double-height atrium filled with soft natural light, where warm wood ceilings and creamy textures lend a sense of calm to the open space.

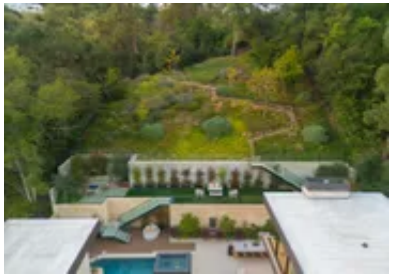

As you move through the villa, each area flows into the next. The formal living room offers a sculptural fireplace and sleek built-in shelving, while floor-to-ceiling sliders disappear entirely to blur the line between indoors and out. The kitchen is as much a showpiece as it is functional, wrapped in bespoke cabinetry and veined marble, with a waterfall island inviting sociable mornings and easy entertaining.

At the centre of the home, a cinema room lined with tactile furnishings creates a cosy hideout for movie nights. The primary suite continues the theme of quiet indulgence, with soft lighting, a generous walk-in wardrobe and an ensuite bathroom that feels like your own personal spa.

Step outside and a serene courtyard unfolds, centred around a shimmering pool and raised hot tub. Lounge in the dappled shade, grill something delicious in the outdoor kitchen, or wind down by the fire pit as twilight falls across the hillside. A layered garden wraps around the back, enclosed by glass railings and stone walls that give the space privacy without compromising on views. This is a home made for slow mornings, long evenings, and everything in between.
