Overview

Set in the heart of rural Fafe, Casa Campo is a contemporary countryside retreat that perfectly balances architectural flair with serene natural surroundings. This stylish, single-storey villa offers 275m² of thoughtfully designed interiors, where clean lines, natural textures and soft neutrals create a calming atmosphere from the moment you arrive.

With four beautifully appointed bedrooms and space for up to seven guests, Casa Campo is ideal for families or groups seeking a quiet, design-led getaway in northern Portugal. The open-plan living area is the social heart of the house, featuring floor-to-ceiling windows, a central fireplace, and a fully equipped kitchen with a sociable island and large wooden dining table.

Each bedroom offers direct access to a private balcony or garden view, while outside, a generous lawned area invites slow mornings and active afternoons. The private swimming pool is perfect for cooling off or soaking in the last light of day, while extras like a trampoline and basketball hoop keep things lively for kids (or the young at heart).

Whether you're enjoying sunset dinners on the terrace or exploring the nearby hills and historic towns, Casa Campo is a peaceful base with a strong sense of style and space.
