

Casa Colle Sereno

Region: Tuscany Sleeps: 6

Overview

Casa Colle Sereno is a beautifully restored Tuscan retreat set within the rolling hills of the prestigious Villa Arceno estate in Chianti Classico, offering a peaceful base surrounded by vineyards, olive groves and woodland scenery. Blending traditional character with relaxed modern comfort, it's an ideal choice for guests looking for privacy, space and authentic countryside living.

Inside, the home is welcoming and full of rustic charm, with classic farmhouse touches and thoughtfully furnished interiors designed for easy holiday living. The layout is perfect for groups or families, with generous living areas for socialising, dining and unwinding after days spent exploring the region. A well-equipped kitchen makes self-catering simple, while comfortable bedrooms provide calm, restful spaces to retreat to at the end of the day.

Outdoors, Casa Colle Sereno benefits from its own private garden space where you can relax with a book, enjoy al fresco meals or take in the views across the Chianti landscape. Guests can also make use of the estate's shared swimming pool, a tranquil spot for cooling off in the summer sunshine and soaking up the atmosphere of the surrounding countryside.

Although wonderfully rural, the villa is well placed for day trips and dining out. You're within easy reach of traditional villages, vineyards and historic towns across Chianti, as well as Siena and Florence for memorable excursions filled with culture, architecture and incredible food and wine.

Location & Local Information

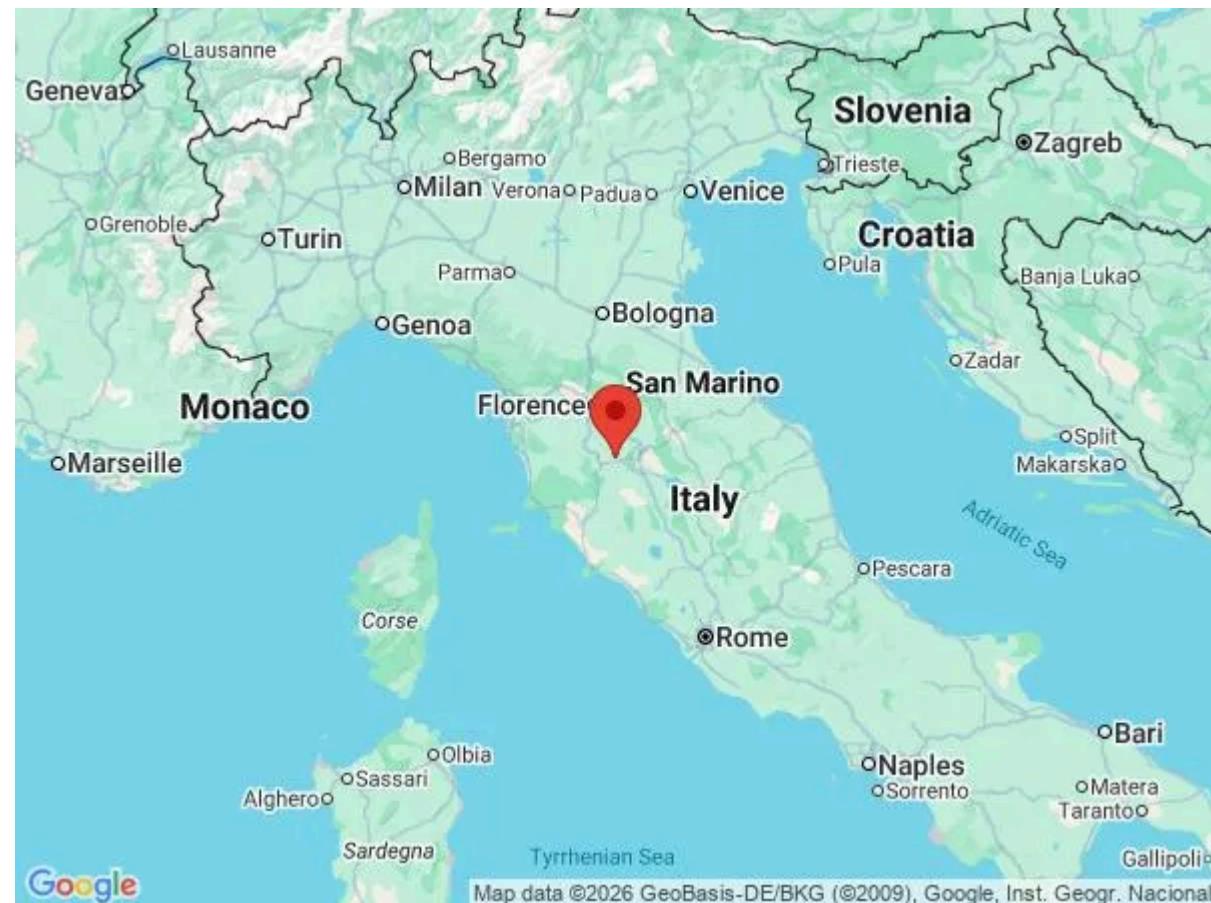

Casa Colle Sereno is set within the prestigious Arceno private estate, a vast countryside reserve made up of rolling vineyards, olive groves and woodland, right on the edge of the beautiful Chianti Classico region in Tuscany.

The villa sits in the area of Castelnuovo Berardenga, in the province of Siena, offering a wonderfully peaceful and secluded setting with plenty of privacy. The surrounding landscape is quintessentially Tuscan, with scenic lanes and "white roads" winding through the estate, creating a real sense of escape and immersion in nature.

Despite its tranquil rural location, the property is well placed for exploring some of Tuscany's most iconic sights. From here, you can easily plan day trips to Siena, Florence, Arezzo, Lucca and Pisa, as well as visit charming hilltop villages, local restaurants and renowned Chianti wineries nearby.

What we love

- Exclusive Arceno estate location surrounded by vineyards, olive groves and woodland.
- Perfect Chianti base for day trips to Siena, Florence and Tuscany's top wineries.
- Peaceful, private countryside escape with scenic lanes and classic Tuscan views.

What you should know...

- The setting is rural, so you'll need a vehicle for getting around and visiting nearby towns.
- The swimming pool is shared rather than completely exclusive.
- This property is set over two floors within a large farmhouse that is now made up of several apartments.
