Surf Shack

Region: Daytona Beach Sleeps: 12

Overview

Step inside Surf Shack, a vibrant, beachy bolthole just steps from the golden sands of Daytona Beach. Cheerful, casual and packed with character, this spacious four-bedroom home offers room for up to twelve guests and is just the ticket for a fun-filled coastal escape with friends, family, or a bit of both.

The interiors are colourful and eclectic, with nods to surf culture, seaside life, and all things relaxed. The heart of the home is the open-plan living area upstairs, where plush navy sofas and beach-themed art set the tone for a laid-back stay. The kitchen is bright and fully equipped, with an island perfect for morning coffees or pancake prep, and a large dining table with a peek of ocean views beyond. There's plenty of space for the whole crew to spread out, with another relaxed lounge, kitchenette and extra sleeping area on the ground level, accessible via a separate entrance.

Bedrooms are simply styled and sun-filled, with a mix of queen beds, bunk beds and single beds to suit groups of all shapes and sizes. The three bathrooms are practical and unfussy, ideal for sandy feet and salty skin after a long day by the surf.

Outside, there's a private fenced pool area with a shallow soaking tub and loungers for catching the Florida rays. The original hot tub now serves as a cool-down spot, a welcome place to relax after a morning on the waves. A covered games room doubles as a fun hangout zone, with foosball, table tennis, arcade games and a comfy seating area to keep everyone entertained.

Located just across from the beach and a short hop from the action of Daytona Pier, Surf Shack gives you the space to unwind and the location to explore. Grab your sunnies, toss on your flip flops, and get ready to sink into that beach-town state of mind.

Location & Local Information

Surf Shack is brilliantly placed for soaking up the best of Daytona Beach. Just across the road from the sandy shore and located a short 1.5-mile skip from the iconic Daytona Pier and buzzing Main Street, this coastal crash pad is ideal for guests who want a bit of everything: beach, bars, burgers and boardwalks.

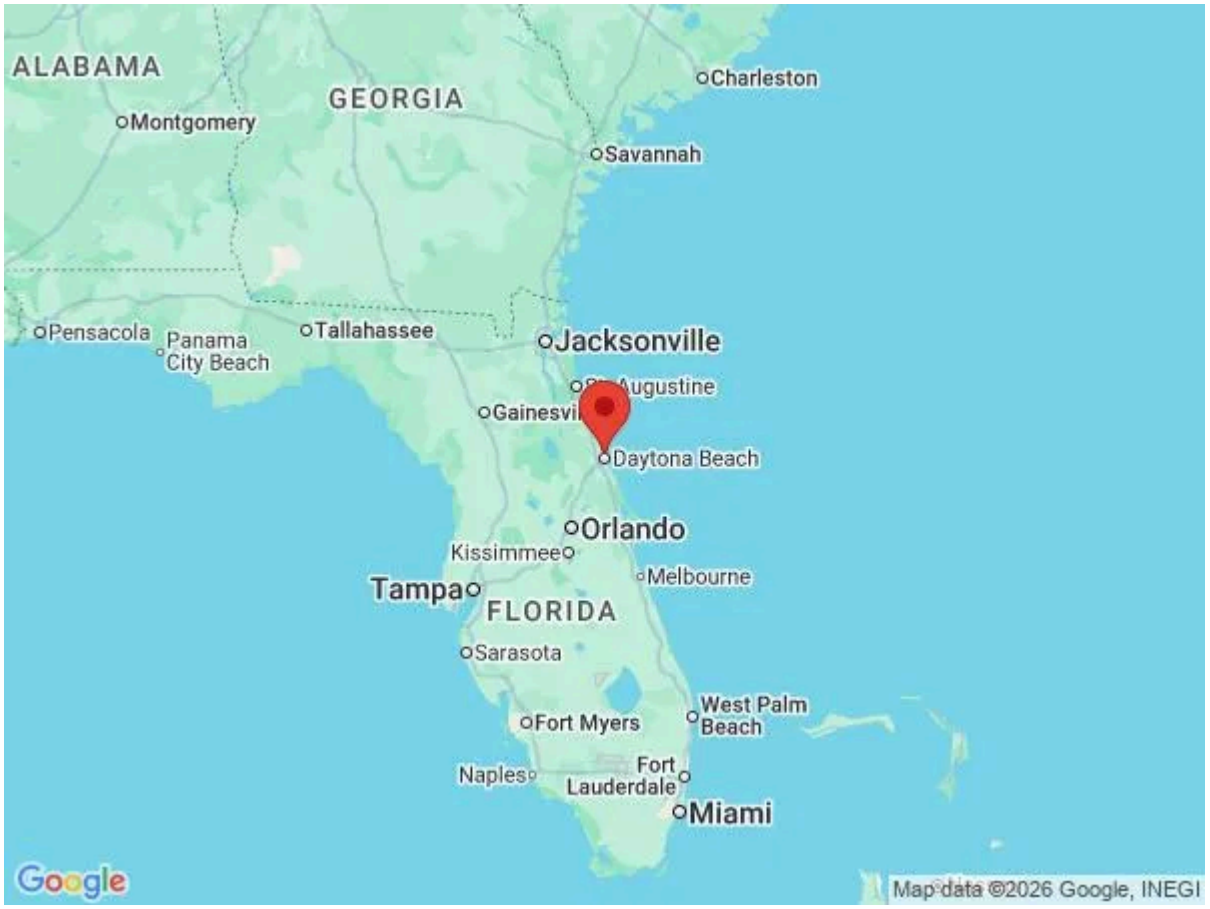

This stretch of the Atlantic coast is known for its long sandy beaches, warm waters and high-octane atmosphere, particularly during events like Bike Week and the Daytona 500. But outside the race days, the vibe is friendly and fun, with tiki bars, beach cafés and casual diners dotting the shoreline. You'll find everything from seafood shacks and frozen margaritas to pizza joints and lively surf shops nearby.

Daytona Beach is a family-friendly spot, too. The boardwalk area features classic arcade games, a Ferris wheel, ice cream stands and gift shops galore. You can also rent bikes, surfboards and beach cruisers locally. Or head to the water with paddleboard rentals, jet ski tours or even parasailing if you're feeling adventurous.

Stock up on supplies at nearby supermarkets or browse local boutiques and beachfront markets. For culture seekers, the area is home to the Daytona Beach Bandshell for live music and the Museum of Arts & Sciences. Nature lovers can venture to Tomoka State Park or the Halifax River for kayaking and dolphin-spotting.

Planning a day trip? You're only around an hour from the history-rich streets of St. Augustine or the thrills of Orlando's theme parks like Disney and Universal. Cape Canaveral and the Kennedy Space Centre are also within easy reach for budding astronauts.

Whether you're sipping a cold drink by the pool, catching waves, or strolling the beach at sunset, the local lifestyle here is infectious, and Surf Shack puts you right at the heart of it.
