Palm Coast Paradise

Region: Daytona Beach Sleeps: 20

Overview

Palm Coast Paradise is the kind of place that makes you pause and think, this is what beach holidays should feel like. Just ten steps from the Atlantic Ocean, this immense six-bedroom retreat combines two stunning beachfront homes into one seamless, sand-between-your-toes escape. With room for twenty guests, it's ideal for large family getaways, special celebrations or group trips where everyone actually wants to stay under one roof.

This is essentially two homes in one, each side of the property offers its own living room, kitchen, bedrooms and bathrooms, giving everyone space to breathe, gather, and unwind. Whether you're coming together for cocktails on the expansive deck or spreading out for a bit of peace and quiet, it's a layout that works beautifully for multigenerational groups.

Inside, you'll find inviting, laid-back interiors with soft wood tones, ocean-themed art, and panoramic windows that frame the sea like a living canvas. The kitchens are fully stocked, the living spaces are filled with cozy seating, and each bedroom offers calm, beachy comfort, including a gorgeous master suite with ocean views that practically beg you to start the day slowly.

The enormous deck is the crown jewel here, stretching across both homes and offering front-row views of the sand, sea, and sky. Lounge with a book, dine alfresco, or simply sit and sip while the kids run down the boardwalk and straight into the surf.

And yes, even your dog can come along. The south-side unit welcomes pets, so your four-legged friend doesn't have to miss out on the salty air and early-morning beach walks.

Palm Coast Paradise is more than just a beach house, it's a gathering place, a memory-maker, and the kind of spot you'll want to return to year after year.

Location & Local Information

Perched directly on the shores of Palm Coast, between the charming towns of Flagler Beach and St. Augustine, Palm Coast Paradise enjoys a prime stretch of Florida coastline that still feels wonderfully under the radar. With miles of private-feeling beach and very little foot traffic, this is a location made for slow mornings, barefoot strolls and long, lazy afternoons.

This home sits right on the ocean, giving you uninterrupted views and direct access to the sand. Grab your coffee and step onto the deck to watch the sun rise. Walk the boardwalk and spot dolphins offshore. Listen to the waves crash at night from your bedroom window. It's coastal living at its purest and most peaceful.

Just five minutes inland, you'll find The Hammock, a lush, relaxed community filled with excellent restaurants, scenic biking paths and outdoor adventure. For golfers, this part of Florida is a quiet treasure trove, with championship courses set among swaying palms and ocean breezes.

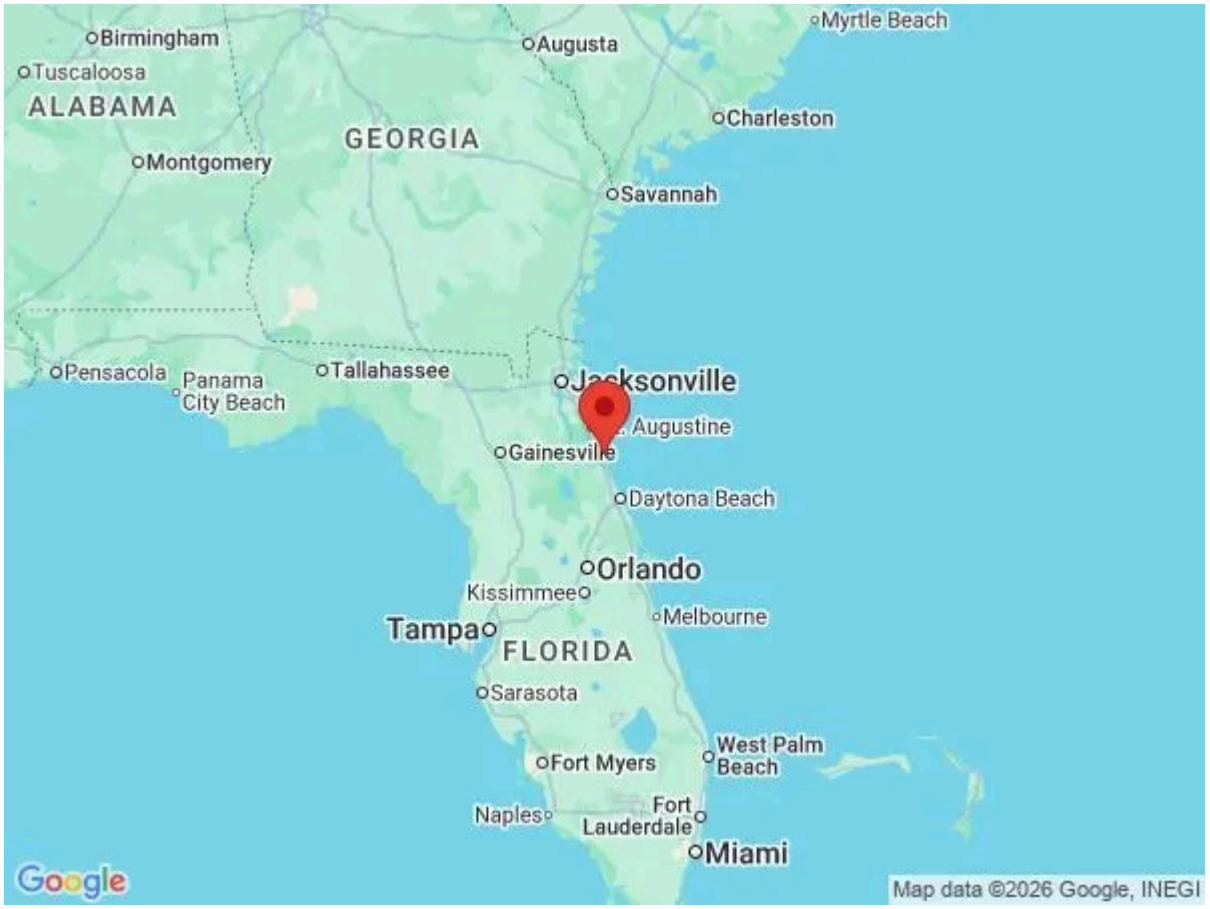

Drive a bit further north and you'll reach historic St. Augustine, where cobblestone streets, centuries-old landmarks and vibrant culture create a perfect contrast to the sleepy beach vibe. Southbound, the artsy town of Flagler Beach offers colourful boutiques, oceanfront dining, a lively pier and that effortlessly cool surf-town energy.

There are also state parks, nature preserves and tidal marshes all within a short drive, ideal for kayaking, hiking or simply birdwatching in the wild. And when the sun sets, the local seafood shacks and beach bars offer a relaxed end to every sun-drenched day.

Whether you're planning a full agenda or none at all, Palm Coast Paradise is the kind of place that lets you decide what vacation really means to you.
