Overview

Set high above the gently curving bay of Agiassos in southwest Naxos, Agiassos Blu is a contemporary haven where nature, light and luxury converge. Ideal for couples, small families or a group of friends, the villa offers three beautifully appointed bedrooms: two doubles and one twin, alongside two sleek bathrooms with walk-in showers. The interiors are minimalist yet warm, with soft white tones, timber accents, and hand-picked furnishings creating a relaxed yet refined atmosphere. Floor-to-ceiling windows bring the outside in, flooding the open-plan living area with sunshine and framing a truly spellbinding panorama of the Aegean Sea.

The villa's kitchen is fully equipped with modern appliances, allowing you to cook, entertain and dine with ease. Whether you're preparing a quick breakfast before a day of beach-hopping or gathering around the table for a sunset dinner, the space is designed to bring people together.

Step through sliding glass doors to find your own slice of island paradise. The expansive terrace is home to a private pool that overlooks the shimmering blue sea, flanked by sun loungers and low-slung seating for lazy afternoons and long conversations. A shaded pergola houses the outdoor dining area and kitchen, complete with built-in barbecue and prep space for alfresco feasting. An outdoor shower and garden lighting ensure day-to-night enjoyment, whether you're cooling off after a swim or stargazing with a glass of wine in hand.

Agiassos Blu is as serene as it is stylish, a place to unwind completely, surrounded by nature and open skies. Location & Local Information

Agiassos Blu is located above the peaceful and protected cove of Agiassos, on the southwestern coast of Naxos. Known for its wide, sandy beach and shallow, crystal-clear waters, Agiassos is one of the island's hidden gems, far removed from the buzz of the main tourist trail and ideal for those in search of true Cycladic tranquillity.

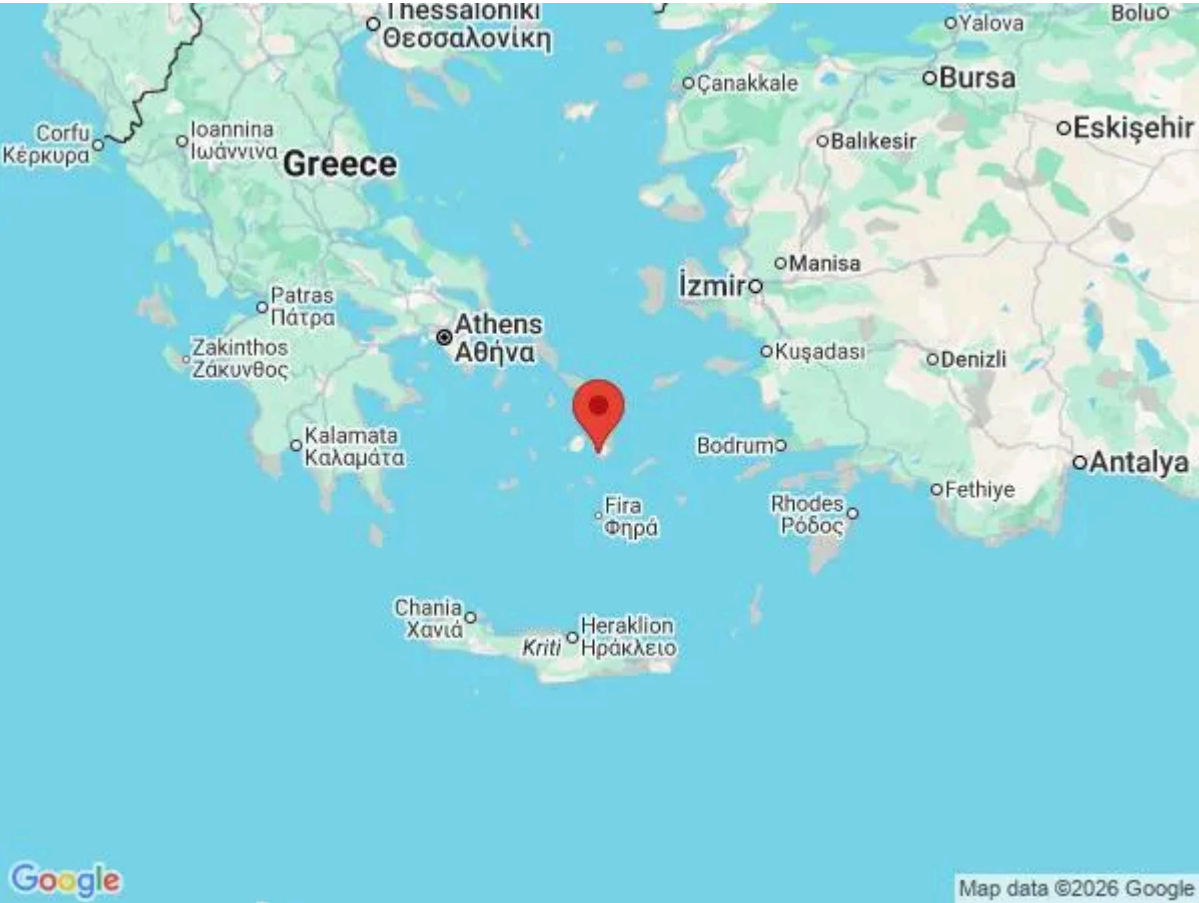

This quiet pocket of Naxos is all about natural beauty and unspoiled charm. Olive groves, rocky hillsides, and low-slung white buildings give way to breathtaking sea views at every turn. The villa's elevated position provides complete privacy, while still being just a short drive to the beach, where you'll find a few local tavernas serving fresh seafood, traditional meze, and cold beer right by the water's edge.

The surrounding area is perfect for exploring at a slower pace. Nearby Alyko is home to cedar forests and protected sand dunes, while Pyrgaki and Mikri Vigla offer some of the best kitesurfing and windsurfing on the island. Inland, you'll find charming villages like Filoti and Chalki, where cobbled streets, quiet cafes, and local shops make for a wonderful afternoon outing.

For supplies or a change of scene, Naxos Town (Chora) is approximately 40-45 minutes away by car. Here, the island's main harbour bustles with shops, restaurants, and a historic old town crowned by a Venetian castle. You'll also find a wider selection of supermarkets, boutiques, and ferry connections to nearby islands.

Despite its seclusion, Agiassos Blu is well connected by a reliable road network and is easily reached from Naxos Airport or the port. The villa's location makes it particularly appealing for guests who want to experience both the beauty of Naxos's beaches and the authenticity of its rural heart.

This is a place where time slows down, where days revolve around sea swims, shaded siestas, and open-air meals as the sun dips behind the mountains. Agiassos Blu is the perfect base for those who value nature, privacy, and simplicity done beautifully.
