Apartment Calla

Region: Tuscany Sleeps: 4

Overview

With tall windows framing one of Lucca's most iconic views, Apartment Calla invites you into a world where timeless architecture and refined design blend seamlessly. Situated on the first floor overlooking Porta San Pietro and the lush promenade of the city's ancient walls, this is a residence that exudes quiet confidence and charm.

Step inside and you're greeted by a striking living space where soft greens and stone greys reflect both elegance and ease. Furnishings are plush yet purposeful, with velvet armchairs, rich wood tones and artful touches that make every corner feel considered. The grand dining area is a true centrepiece, positioned perfectly to capture the light as it floods through the windows, casting warmth over the antique table, ideal for long, leisurely meals or a peaceful espresso as the city stirs outside.

The kitchen is discreetly stylish yet fully equipped with high-end appliances, perfect for preparing local market fare. A separate laundry room with washer and dryer adds a touch of practicality to this thoughtful apartment. Each of the two bedrooms feels like a private suite, complete with sumptuous mattresses and calming décor. The master bedroom features an ensuite bathroom, while a second bathroom serves the twin room and guests. Both bathrooms echo the apartment's graceful aesthetic with clean lines and soft lighting.

While you'll feel wonderfully cocooned inside, the apartment's location places you at the cultural heart of Lucca. Just a short walk from the famed Piazza Napoleone, the Teatro del Giglio, and the cathedral of San Martino, every stroll becomes a journey through centuries of history. The city's vibrant café culture and renowned wine bars are just outside your door, creating an effortlessly sociable atmosphere.

Apartment Calla is the kind of place where heritage and modern comfort meet. Whether you're drawn to Lucca's operatic history, art-filled churches or the simple pleasure of wandering its ancient streets, this elegant retreat ensures you do so in style and comfort.

Location & Local Information

Apartment Calla sits in the heart of Lucca's historic centre, surrounded by the charm, beauty, and daily rhythm of one of Tuscany's most atmospheric cities. With views towards Porta San Pietro, guests enjoy a front-row perspective of Lucca's famous Renaissance walls, now a leafy promenade popular for walking and cycling beneath centuries-old trees.

Just steps away is Piazza Napoleone, the city's grandest square and a lively hub of cafés, culture, and seasonal events. Street musicians, markets, and concerts bring the area to life, while the elegant Teatro del Giglio is close by for opera and performances in a striking neoclassical setting. Lucca's compact, walkable layout makes exploring effortless, whether you're sightseeing or simply soaking up the city's relaxed pace.

The apartment is conveniently positioned just outside the restricted traffic zone, making arrivals and luggage drop-offs easier. Cittadella Car Park is nearby, and the train station is only a five-minute walk away, offering quick connections to Florence, Pisa, and the Tuscan coast.

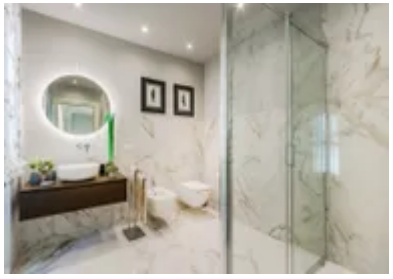

Lucca is known for its refined, laid-back feel - less crowded than Italy's larger cities but full of character. From artisan bakeries and trattorias to boutique shops and gelato stops, everything you need is within minutes, making Apartment Calla a perfect base for city living with calm and style.
