Villa Lucere

Region: Sitges Sleeps: 7

Overview

Framed by tall pines and the soft rise of hills beyond, Villa Lucere makes a bold first impression with its clean architectural lines and sunlit terraces. Enter through a modern courtyard shaded by an ancient olive tree and you're immediately in holiday mode. Inside, sleek ceramic floors and whitewashed walls set a calm, contemporary tone, softened by eclectic artworks and warm wood finishes.

The open-plan layout flows effortlessly between kitchen, dining and lounge, with soaring ceilings and glass doors flooding the space with light. Every room opens onto a terrace, giving the villa a wonderfully open feel that's made for outdoor living. Upstairs, the spacious master suite leads directly to a sunny viewing platform, while two further bedrooms on the lower-level spill out to the poolside deck.

The private pool is wrapped in rich timber, flanked by loungers, parasols, and a hammock swaying in the breeze. Dine alfresco with sweeping views across Garraf's undulating hills or relax with a chilled drink as the light fades and the pines shift in silhouette. Though the setting feels serene and remote, vibrant Sitges is only a fifteen-minute drive away, with Barcelona just beyond.

Location & Local Information

Villa Lucere is tucked away in the peaceful Las Colinas hills near Olivella, surrounded by aromatic pine forests and with views across the dramatic Garraf Natural Park. This area is beloved for its walking trails, vineyards and Mediterranean flora, offering a refreshing retreat from urban life. The closest village offers essentials, while local restaurants and wineries are scattered nearby for leisurely afternoons.

A fifteen-minute drive leads you into Sitges, where narrow streets open to golden beaches, palm-lined promenades and buzzing terraces. Known for its lively festivals, eclectic shops and open-minded spirit, Sitges has long been a magnet for creatives and families alike. Just 45 minutes further is Barcelona, ideal for day trips or catching cultural events, making this a prime spot for those wanting peace without being far from the action.
