

Villa Olivia

Region: Sitges Sleeps: 9

Overview

Hidden among the pine-draped hills of Mas Mestre, Villa Olivia is a breezy, sun-washed retreat with space to relax, gather and unwind. Step through the front door into a bright, open-plan living space where soft sofas curl around a wood-burning fireplace and warm terracotta tiles run underfoot. A vibrant, red-topped kitchen with a breakfast bar leads directly onto a dining terrace, ideal for lazy lunches or evenings with something sizzling on the barbecue. The main house features four well-sized bedrooms, while a separate air-conditioned garden suite offers privacy and a sense of independence for teens or couples.

Outside, a terraced garden cascades gently down to a generous private pool surrounded by loungers, a bar area and dual barbecues for entertaining. Up top, a gated lawn with trampoline gives kids their own space to play.

Whether you're dozing under a parasol, sharing grilled seafood at sunset, or admiring the hills from the master suite's private terrace, Villa Olivia feels like a warm summer breeze. Just ten minutes from the beaches and bustle of Sitges, it's perfectly placed for exploring, yet delightfully easy to stay put.

Location & Local Information

Mas Mestre is a peaceful residential enclave tucked into forested hills just outside the coastal town of Sitges. Surrounded by pine trees and set beneath a blue Catalan sky, the area feels secluded yet connected, with shops, bakeries and local restaurants all within a five-minute drive.

Sitges itself, just ten minutes away, is a lively mix of palm-lined beaches, boutique shopping and pavement cafés. Known for its film festival, colourful Carnival and modernist architecture, this old fishing village has long been a hub of art, culture and open-minded charm. Beyond the beach, the Garraf Natural Park offers hiking, biking and sweeping vineyard views, while family-friendly activities like paddleboarding, water parks and wine tasting tours (some child-friendly) are all within easy reach.
